Confusion Still Marks Middle East

By The Associated Press

U.N. observers reported three Israeli air attacks around the Syrian capital of Damascus today and said Israeli troops were in the vicinity of the city. The reports to U.N. Secretry-General U Thant said, however, there were no attacks on the capital itself as Israel and Syria kept the Middle East war going a sixth day.

Israel announced to the U.N. Security Council that Gen. Moshe Dayan, Israel's defense minister, began meeting in Jerusalem with the chief U.N. truce observer, Lt. Gen. Odd Bull, to arrange a cease-fire with Syria.

The Soviet Union informed Israel it had decided to break diplomatic relations because of the continued fighting and warned that unless Israel halted military action the Kremlin "will take sanctions against Israel." The Soviet stand was made in a note handed to the Israeli ambassador in Moscow.

In Cairo, President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt informed his National Assembly that he would bow to the will of Egyptian leaders and people and remain on as president until Egypt "erased all traces of aggression." Then, he said, the Egyptian people should vote on the matter.

Thant went before the Security Council in New York with a report from Lt. Gen. R.H.W. Bunworth of Ireland, head of the Israeli-Syrian Mixed Armistice Commission in Damascus. The report said one Israeli air attack was against the area of Damascus Airport, a second south of Damascus and a third north and northeast of Damascus.

Nasser Will Remain On The Job

Earlier Syria claimed that Israeli forces had captured the Syrian city of Koneytra, nine miles inside its border and 41 miles southwest of Damascus.

Thant told the Security Council, however, that Bull reported from Jerusalem that he had been informed by an Israeli official that Israeli forces were not in Koneytra. Bull reported the Israeli official recommended that Bull dispatch a U.N. observer group to see for themselves.

Gideon Rafael, Israeli ambassador to the United Nations, denied that Israel had attacked Damascus. He said Syria had been shelling Israeli border villages for 36 hours and if it would stop, "our defense action would cease."

Despite agreements from both capitals to a U.N. call for a cease- fire, AP dispatches from the Syrian-Israeli border reported exchanges of artillery barrages and Israeli air attacks on Syrian gun positions. Each nation accused the other of violating the agreement.

Nasser said Friday he was responsible for Egypt's "grave setback" in the war and that he was leaving the government. But his National Assembly voted today to insist that he stay in the position he has held 15 years, and there were expressions of support from Iraq and Lebanon.

Vice President Zakaria Mohieddin, to whom Nasser said he would give the presidency, declined today to take it.

The Communist-bloc countries, meanwhile met in Moscow and vowed to go to the aid of the Arab nations if "Israel does not stop the aggression and withdraw its troops behind the 1948-49 truce lines."

The Soviet Union, which saw Arab armies equipped with $4 billion in Soviet aid fall quickly to the Israelis, was rallying its Communist brothers in demanding that Israel give up gains made in the war.

These included Jordanian cities of religious significance to the Jews and Egyptian territory of strategic significance, such as Sharm el Sheikh, where Nasser tried to block Israeli shipping into the Gulf of Aqaba. There was no sign Israel would surrender them.

At the call of Syria, which charged continuing aggression by Israel, the U.N. Security Council went into a 4:32 a.m. meeting. Earlier, the Soviet Union pressed a request upon Secretary-General U Thant to contact U.N. observers near the Syrian-Israeli fighting and report to the council.

An Israeli army spokesman in Tel Aviv declined comment on all Syrian reports of fighting.

Damascus radio exhorted Syrian troops to "hit the enemy, strike them, let your fire fall on them like rain. Destroy settlements after settlement, burn their positions, shoot down their planes."

The Syrian government announced it was freeing political prisoners to aid in defense. There are scores of them in the politically unstable nation, including Gen. Amin Bafez, former strongman ousted in a coup of February 1966, and his one-time defense minister, Gen. Mohanned Omran.

It was on the Syrian-Israeli border that the Middle East crisis began a month ago. After Syrian-supported raids into Israel and Israeli threats of reprisal, Nasser moved 80,000 troops into the Sinai Pensinsula facing the frontier of the Jewish nation. If Israel started war, he said then, the Arabs would set out to crush that nation which was carved out of Palestinian land in the 1948-49 war.

In what he called a farewell speech Friday, Nasser said he acted because "there was a plan by the enemy to invade Syria. There was ample evidence of this. Our friends in the Soviet Union informed a parliamentary delegation visiting Moscow that there was a scheme against Syria."

After Nasser said he would step down, thousands of Egyptians shouting "Nasser! Nasser!" crowded around the president's home, urging him to keep his job. Cairo radio then came on with a statement from Nasser that it was up to the National Assembly.

The Assembly also said stay and added: "What has been accomplished recently on the national, Arab, international level is a picture so dignified that no setback can affect it."

County Queen To Be Selected

Girls Wait Title Selection

"Miss Columbiana County 1967" will be crowned tonight during the Jaycee-sponsored pageant at Westgate Auditorium to represent the county in the "Miss Ohio" competition.

Kathie McNab of Columbiana won Friday night's talent division with a song and dance routine, "I'm Just Taking My Time," from the Broadway show, "Subways Are For Sleeping."

Richard Landis, chairman, said the second group of 10 girls in the pageant — in which 20 are participating — will take part in tonight's talent, swimsuit and evening gown competition.

Landis said tonight's highlights will include naming of a second night talent winner, presentation of the Miss Congeniality Award and the grand finale —crowning of the title winner.

Miss Debra Barefield, the 1966 winner, is reigning over this year's festivities.

Mistress of ceremonies for the two-night affair is Jacquelyn Jeane Mayer, Miss America of 1963. She is assisted by Rod Baum.

Also performing last night were Miss Vickie Ellen Moninger, Miss Weirton of 1967, and the Samaritones, a local barbershop quartet group.

The winner will represent the county in the Miss Ohio contest, at Sandusky July 12-15, forerunner of the Miss America Pageant at Atlantic City.

FIRST-NIGHT WINNER. Kathie McNab of Columbiana accepts a trophy from Richard Landis, chairman of this year's Miss Columbiana County pageant. Kathie was named the opening night talent winner by the judges. The pageant resumes at 8 tonight.

Soviet - Supplied Data Spurred Nasser Bid

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Information supplied to Egypt by the Soviet Union evidently exerted an important influence on President Gamal Abdel Nasser's decisions to make the military and political moves last month which helped trigger the Middle East war crisis.

Nasser himself tended to corroborate this in his resignation speech Friday when he said Moscow had told Egyptians of an Israeli "scheme against Syria."

U.S. officials had received information earlier, apparently from intelligence sources, that a Soviet warning to the Arabs had served to stir their excitement over what Americans had regarded as more or less normal tensions.

U.S. officials had suspected also that the Syrian hostility toward Israel, expressed in persistent border raids this spring, possibly had received Communist encouragement.

This raises the question of the Kremlin role in the early days of the crisis—and U.S. officials are divided in their assessment.

Some believe the Soviets deliberately stoked the crisis out of growing Israeli-Syrian tensions. Others see the Soviet strategy as exploiting whatever they could to boost their influence in the Middle East and weaken America's.

But officials agree the Kremlin apparently did not want the war which broke out Monday after the sequence which saw Egypt and Syria move forces toward the Israeli frontier after Nasser's ouster of the U.N. force and proclaimed blockade of the Gulf of Aqaba.

The Soviets wound up using the hot line to Washington and voting in the United Nations for a cease-fire.

Nasser said in his speech both President Johnson and the Soviet government asked him on May 26 to refrain from beginning any war. But he also confirmed that information supplied by the Soviet Union had figured in his policy decisions.

"In the middle of May," Nasser said, "there was a plan by the enemy to invade Syria. There was ample evidence of this. Our friends in the Soviet Union informed a parliamentary delegation visiting Moscow that there was a scheme against Syria.

"We felt we should not tolerate this, as a duty to Arab brotherhood, and for security purposes."

With the war virtually over, signs now are that Washington and Moscow again will pursue divergent courses in the Middle East following their brief togetherness in U.N. voting.

Some unconfirmed reports had Soviet arms on their way to Egypt even during the fighting. The Kremlin in past years supplied an estimated billion dollars worth of weapons to Egypt and an equal amount to its other Arab friends.

Trucks Get Call At Wellsville

Real Thing Livens Parade

THE NEW WATERFORD RUBE BAND performed for spectators at Friday's Wellsville Homecoming parade. The group was awarded a trophy for being the best comic entry.

By JERRY NACHMAN

A bona fide blaze which struck, just as the Wellsville Volunteer Fire Department parade was passing the fire station created some confusion for the firefighters, but didn't spoil the fun for the 6,000 who stood on the sidewalks watching the 48 units file by.

As the first units arrived at 9th and Main Sts., most of them emergency vehicles with their sirens wailing and shrieking, the emergency whistle atop the Wellsville fire station sounded. Thinking it was a signal that the action was about to begin, children in the crowd hopped up and down in excited anticipation.

SUDDENLY the city pumper sped out of the station, turned right on 9th St. and disappeared.

As police cars, visiting emergency units and marchers reached the crowd, a fire truck broke formation and sped alongside the parade, also to turn north on 9th St.

What had happened, for the second time in 20 years, according to Chief Robert Lewis, was that a real fire struck in the midst of the parade activity. A car owned by Robert Wright of 2401 Buckeye Ave. backfired and burst into flames at the corner of 25th St. and Clark Ave. Much of the auto was consumed by the flames and it was termed a "total" loss.

Ironically, the volunteers' truck never made it. En route to the blaze, it broke at least one axle and had to limp back to the station later. The firemen found their way to the fire by other means.

THE ONE-HOUR parade was the climax of Wellsville's week-long Homecoming activities. Tonight, the carnival, located at the 4th St. Square, ends. A bicycle will be awarded at 9 p.m.

Chairman Frank Fusco announced that the winner of the best pumper award went to the Vanport Volunteer Fire Department.

OTHER trophy winners included Jean Sell of Wellsville, best renovated car, a 1931 Plymouth; Monaca Fire Department, best squad car and emergency vehicle; MacDonald, Pa. volunteer department, longest distance traveled, 65 miles; Vi-Lar Kadettes, best marching unit; second prize, Ann Rochell's Annettes of Midland; New Waterford Rube Band, best comic unit.

Judging the fire units were Chiefs Alfred Van Dyne of East Liverpool and Earl Flesch of Newell.

Herman Heiney and Oliver McAdoo were judges of the marching units.

Bands representing Wellsville, East Liverpool, Salineville and Southern Local schools performed.

Council Selects Ambulance Firm

BULLETIN

East Liverpool Council shortly before noon today agreed to award a franchise for ambulance service in the city to Ambulance Service, Inc., of Steubenville.

Councilmen said minor points which had been holding up a decision had been ironed out at a meeting with Robert D'Anniballe of the Steubenville concern.

City Council Friday night voted conditional approval of a proposal to award a contract to a Steubenville firm to provide ambulance service in East Liverpool after three funeral homes discontinue the runs July 15.

The members agreed, 5-2, to grant a franchise to Ambulance Service, Inc., of Steubenville, provided modifications in its proposal to the city can be worked out satisfactorily for both parties in a conference today at City Hall.

Council is slated to meet with Robert J. D'Anniballe, operator of the service, to attempt to thresh out a final agreement.

The vote favored the Steubenville firm's Proposal A in a two - pronged proposition which was read to Council Wednesday night.

THE PROPOSAL calls for the city to pay the firm a $1,200-a-month subsidy. The firm stipulated its charge for a run inside the city would be $25, plus $3 if oxygen was used on the patient. The rate for a run outside the city would be the same, along with a fee of $1 a mile for each mile outside the corporate limits.

D'Anniballe's second proposition called for a subsidy of only $600 a month from the city, but a $5 higher charge in the basic ambulance fees.

The motion for conditional acceptance of D'Anniballe's proposal was made by Mrs. Donna Richards Wilson near the close of a 90-minute session last night as Council discussed the ambulance question for the second time this week. Mrs. Wilson was seconded by Robert W. Sample.

In addition to Sample and Mrs. Wilson, the motion was sup-

Beaver Lists 21st Fatality On Highways

A 43-year-old Koppel driver became Beaver County's 21st traffic fatality of 1967 Friday when his car rammed the rear of a tractor - trailer truck on Route 18 about a quarter of a mile south of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Laurence Baker of Koppel was pronounced dead at Beaver Falls Providence Hospital of a crushed chest following the collision at 5:30 p. m.

State police at Chippewa said he was headed north and his sedan struck the rear of the rig driven by Thomas Green, 25, of Downingtown, Pa.

Witnesses said Baker's car was weaving back and forth on the roadway prior to the mishap. A specimen of blood was sent to a Pittsburgh laboratory as part of the investigation.

Senate Group Studies Slash In Arms Flow

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Foreign Relations Committee members, expressing hope the Middle East crisis will spur cuts in arm shipments to the turbulent area, indicate the panel may offer proposals along that line.

Disarmament was among the major topics committee members raised Friday with Secretary of State Dean Rusk at a two-hour, private meeting on the Middle East situation.

Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., commented later, "I'm not very strong on continuing military armaments" shipments to the area.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said he thought defeat of Arab countries, which had received military supplies from the Soviet Union might have created a climate favorable to a U.S.-Soviet agreement to curtail arms shipments.

He said Soviet leaders found they had "poured $2 billion down a rat hole" in arming the Arab nations.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Spencer Tracy, 67, whose roughhewn face and forceful manner personified the American man of action in scores of movie roles, died today.

Tracy's career, which brought him two Academy Awards and eight nominations more than any other actor, began on the stage in 1922.

U.S. Jets Bomb Plant In Hanoi

SAIGON (AP) — Jet warplanes from three U.S. aircraft carriers bombed an electric plant in Hanoi today in addition to targets on the city's outskirts. One plane was lost, U.S. spokesmen said.

The planes, from the Constellation, Bon Homme Richard and Enterprise, flew through a hail of groundfire from the defense network known as the "Iron Triangle." The Communist air force offered no battle although several MIGs were sighted.

"Raid leaders reported all three raids were successful," a headquarters spokesman said.

One Navy F8 Crusader was shot down by the heavy Communist fire, the spokesman said. The pilot is missing.

The Soviet news agency Tass reported from Hanoi that three U.S. planes were downed.

The raids against the heartland of North Vietnam followed hard on the heels of a bloody Communist mortar attack earlier today against five U.S. and South Vietnamese installations around Pleiku. The attacks left 26 dead, including two Americans, and 121 wounded.

The bombed thermal power plant is only 1.1 miles from Hanoi's geographic center. The power plant has been raided twice before.

The Crusader was the 578th plane reported downed over North Vietnam.

Aside from the mortar assaults, however, the week-long slowdown in ground fighting continued. U.S. aircraft also flew strikes against rail facilities in North Vietnam and struck widely scattered targets in South Vietnam.

In Saigon military sources said they saw no significance in the lull in fighting. They pointed out that periods of intense combat often have been separated by periods of minor skirmishing.

The raids on the Red capital area were the first in three weeks. The last previous strike close to Hanoi was on May 22 when planes hit a military barracks six miles from the city.

French Aristocrat Bridegroom

Princess Will Wed Today During Rites In Denmark

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Today is the day a pretty Danish princess marries a young French aristocrat in what she had hoped would be "a normal Danish wedding."

The bride is Princess Margrethe, 27, the future queen of Denmark. She is the eldest of three daughters born to King Frederick IX, 68, and Princess Ingrid of Sweden.

The bridegroom is Count Henri de Laborde de Monpezat, a handsome French ex-diplomat. A former Roman Catholic, he became Lutheran to become the prince consort of Denmark. He will be 33 Sunday.

Bishop Erik Jenson, who accepted the bridegroom into the Danish Lutheran Church, the established state church since 1536, will marry the couple in a small portside church.

Among the 400 guests expected to attend are all the crowned heads of Europe, except Queen Elizabeth II of England and King Constantine of Greece. The Greek monrach is staying home to avoid possible demonstrations in Copenhagen against the new Greek military regime.

Most of the 4.5 million Danes will watch the wedding on television. But at least 150,000 of them plus 10,000 tourists are expected to line the winding streets of downtown Copenhagen to see the bridal couple drive from the church to Fredensborg Castle, where a gala dinner is to be staged in a huge tent.

"It is no secret that the royal bride wants the wedding to be held as most Danish weddings go," said Bishop Jensen. And in some ways it will be normal.

The wedding rites will be the same as for all other Danish weddings, according to a royal decree issued 55 years ago by Margrethe's grandfather, King Christian X.

Confusion Still Marks Middle East

Nasser Will Remain On The Job

By The Associated Press

U.N. observers reported three Israeli air attacks around the Syrian capital of Damascus today and said Israeli troops were in the vicinity of the city. The reports to U.N. Secretry-General U Thant said, however, there were no attacks on the capital itself as Israel and Syria kept the Middle East war going a sixth day.

Israel announced to the U.N. Security Council that Gen. Moshe Dayan, Israel's defense minister, began meeting in Jerusalem with the chief U.N. truce observer, Lt. Gen. Odd Bull, to arrange a cease-fire with Syria.

The Soviet Union informed Israel it had decided to break diplomatic relations because of the continued fighting and warned that unless Israel halted military action the Kremlin "will take sanctions against Israel." The Soviet stand was made in a note handed to the Israeli ambassador in Moscow.

In Cairo, President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt informed his National Assembly that he would bow to the will of Egyptian leaders and people and remain on as president until Egypt "erased all traces of aggression." Then, he said, the Egyptian people should vote on the matter.

Thant went before the Security Council in New York with a report from Lt. Gen. R.H.W. Bunworth of Ireland, head of the Israeli-Syrian Mixed Armistice Commission in Damascus. The report said one Israeli air attack was against the area of Damascus Airport, a second south of Damascus and a third north and northeast of Damascus.

Earlier Syria claimed that Israeli forces had captured the Syrian city of Koneytra, nine miles inside its border and 41 miles southwest of Damascus.

Thant told the Security Council, however, that Bull reported from Jerusalem that he had been informed by an Israeli official that Israeli forces were not in Koneytra. Bull reported the Israeli official recommended that Bull dispatch a U.N. observer group to see for themselves.

Gideon Rafael, Israeli ambassador to the United Nations, denied that Israel had attacked Damascus. He said Svria had been shelling Israeli border villages for 36 hours and if it would stop, "our defense action would cease."

Despite agreements from both capitals to a U.N. call for a cease- fire, AP dispatches from the Syrian-Israeli border reported exchanges of artillery barrages and Israeli air attacks on Syrian gun positions. Each nation accused the other of violating the agreement.

Nasser said Friday he was responsible for Egypt's "grave setback" in the war and that he was leaving the government. But his National Assembly voted today to insist that he stay in the position he has held 15 years, and there were expressions of support from Iraq and Lebanon.

Vice President Zakaria Mohieddin, to whom Nasser said he would give the presidency, declined today to take it.

The Communist-bloc countries, meanwhile met in Moscow and vowed to go to the aid of the Arab nations if "Israel does not stop the aggression and withdraw its troops behind the 1948-49 truce lines."

The Soviet Union, which saw Arab armies equipped with $4 billion in Soviet aid fall quickly to the Israelis, was rallying its Communist brothers in demanding that Israel give up gains made in the war.

These included Jordanian cities of religious significance to the Jews and Egyptian territory of strategic significance, such as Sharm el Sheikh, where Nasser tried to block Israeli shipping into the Gulf of Aqaba. There was no sign Israel would surrender them.

At the call of Syria, which charged continuing aggression by Israel, the U.N. Security Council went into a 4:32 a.m. meeting. Earlier, the Soviet Union pressed a request upon Secretary-General U Thant to contact U.N. observers near the Syrian-Israeli fighting and report to the council.

An Israeli army spokesman in Tel Aviv declined comment on all Syrian reports of fighting.

Damascus radio exhorted Syrian troops to "hit the enemy, strike them, let your fire fall on them like rain. Destroy settlements after settlement, burn their positions, shoot down their planes."

The Syrian government announced it was freeing political prisoners to aid in defense. There are scores of them in the politically unstable nation, including Gen. Amin Bafez, former strongman ousted in a coup of February 1966, and his one-time defense minister, Gen. Mohanned Omran.

It was on the Syrian-Israeli border that the Middle East crisis began a month ago. After Syrian-supported raids into Israel and Israeli threats of reprisal, Nasser moved 80,000 troops into the Sinai Pensinsula facing the frontier of the Jewish nation. If Israel started war, he said then, the Arabs would set out to crush that nation which was carved out of Palestinian land in the 1948-49 war.

In what he called a farewell speech Friday, Nasser said he acted because "there was a plan by the enemy to invade Syria. There was ample evidence of this. Our friends in the Soviet Union informed a parliamentary delegation visiting Moscow that there was a scheme against Syria."

After Nasser said he would step down, thousands of Egyptians shouting "Nasser! Nasser!" crowded around the president's home, urging him to keep his job. Cairo radio then came on with a statement from Nasser that it was up to the National Assembly.

The Assembly also said stay and added: "What has been accomplished recently on the national, Arab, international level is a picture so dignified that no setback can affect it."

Soviet - Supplied Data Spurred Nasser Bid

Council Selects Ambulance Firm

BULLETIN

East Liverpool Council shortly before noon today agreed to award a franchise for ambulance service in the city to Ambulance Service, Inc., of Steubenville.

Councilmen said minor points which had been holding up a decision had been ironed out at a meeting with Robert D'Anniballe of the Steubenville concern.

City Council Friday night voted conditional approval of a proposal to award a contract to a Steubenville firm to provide ambulance service in East Liverpool after three funeral homes discontinue the runs July 15.

The members agreed, 5-2, to grant a franchise to Ambulance Service, Inc., of Steubenville, provided modifications in its proposal to the city can be worked out satisfactorily for both parties in a conference today at City Hall.

Council is slated to meet with Robert J. D'Anniballe, operator of the service, to attempt to thresh out a final agreement.

The vote favored the Steubenville firm's Proposal A in a two - pronged proposition which was read to Council Wednesday night.

Senate Group Studies Slash In Arms Flow

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Foreign Relations Committee members, expressing hope the Middle East crisis will spur cuts in arm shipments to the turbulent area, indicate the panel may offer proposals along that line.

Disarmament was among the major topics committee members raised Friday with Secretary of State Dean Rusk at a two-hour, private meeting on the Middle East situation.

Chairman J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., commented later, "I'm not very strong on continuing military armaments" shipments to the area.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said he thought defeat of Arab countries, which had received military supplies from the Soviet Union might have created a climate favorable to a U.S.-Soviet agreement to curtail arms shipments.

He said Soviet leaders found they had "poured $2 billion down a rat hole" in arming the Arab nations.

Beaver Lists 21st Fatality On Highways

A 43-year-old Koppel driver became Beaver County's 21st traffic fatality of 1967 Friday when his car rammed the rear of a tractor - trailer truck on Route 18 about a quarter of a mile south of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Laurence Baker of Koppel was pronounced dead at Beaver Falls Providence Hospital of a crushed chest following the collision at 5:30 p. m.

State police at Chippewa said he was headed north and his sedan struck the rear of the rig driven by Thomas Green, 25, of Downingtown, Pa.

Witnesses said Baker's car was weaving back and forth on the roadway prior to the mishap. A specimen of blood was sent to a Pittsburgh laboratory as part of the investigation.

U.S. Jets Bomb Plant In Hanoi

SAIGON (AP) — Jet warplanes from three U.S. aircraft carriers bombed an electric plant in Hanoi today in addition to targets on the city's outskirts. One plane was lost, U.S. spokesmen said.

The planes, from the Constellation, Bon Homme Richard and Enterprise, flew through a hail of groundfire from the defense network known as the "Iron Triangle." The Communist air force offered no battle although several MIGs were sighted.

"Raid leaders reported all three raids were successful," a headquarters spokesman said.

One Navy F8 Crusader was shot down by the heavy Communist fire, the spokesman said. The pilot is missing.

The Soviet news agency Tass reported from Hanoi that three U.S. planes were downed.

The raids against the heartland of North Vietnam followed hard on the heels of a bloody Communist mortar attack earlier today against five U.S. and South Vietnamese installations around Pleiku. The attacks left 26 dead, including two Americans, and 121 wounded.

The bombed thermal power plant is only 1.1 miles from Hanoi's geographic center. The power plant has been raided twice before.

The Crusader was the 578th plane reported downed over North Vietnam.

Aside from the mortar assaults, however, the week-long slowdown in ground fighting continued. U.S. aircraft also flew strikes against rail facilities in North Vietnam and struck widely scattered targets in South Vietnam.

In Saigon military sources said they saw no significance in the lull in fighting. Thev pointed out that periods of intense combat often have been separated by periods of minor skirmishing.

The raids on the Red capital area were the first in three weeks. The last previous strike close to Hanoi was on May 22 when planes hit a military barracks six miles from the city.

French Aristocrat Bridegroom

Princess Will Wed Today During Rites In Denmark

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Today is the day a pretty Danish princess marries a young French aristocrat in what she had hoped would be "a normal Danish wedding."

The bride is Princess Margrethe, 27, the future queen of Denmark. She is the eldest of three daughters born to King Frederick IX, 68, and Princess Ingrid of Sweden.

The bridegroom is Count Henri de Laborde de Monpezat, a handsome French ex-diplomat. A former Roman Catholic, he became Lutheran to become the prince consort of Denmark. He will be 33 Sunday.

Bishop Erik Jenson, who accepted the bridegroom into the Danish Lutheran Church, the established state church since 1536, will marry the couple in a small portside church.

Among the 400 guests expected to attend are all the crowned heads of Europe, except Queen Elizabeth II of England and King Constantine of Greece. The Greek monrach is staying home to avoid possible demonstrations in Copenhagen against the new Greek military regime.

Most of the 4.5 million Danes will watch the wedding on television. But at least 150,000 of them plus 10,000 tourists are expected to line the winding streets of downtown Copenhagen to see the bridal couple drive from the church to Fredensborg Castle, where a gala dinner is to be staged in a huge tent.

"It is no secret that the royal bride wants the wedding to be held as most Danish weddings go," said Bishop Jensen. And in some ways it will be normal.

The wedding rites will be the same as for all other Danish weddings, according to a royal decree issued 55 years ago by Margrethe's grandfather, King Christian X.

The restored residence of Henry Shaw, the gardens' founder, rests on the site. It is one of the oldest greenhouses in the world, Lawrence said.

Area Mishap Injures Trio

Three were injured in a car-motorcycle collision Friday night on Route 7, south of Rogers, in one of two accidents investigated yesterday by the Highway Patrol.

Officers said a 1966 motorcycle driven by Kenneth E. Van Kirk, 28, of Rogers R. D. 1, collided with an auto operated by Richard A. Eddy of 805 Daisy Ln., East Liverpool, as both were rounding a curve.

Van Kirk was in "fairly good" condition this morning at City Hospital with contusions and a possible fracture of the left ankle and contusions of both legs and nose. He is stationed with the Army Alert Division at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

A passenger in the car, Phillis Eddy, also of 805 Daisy Ln., was released from the hospital after treatment for contusions of the right elbow. Eddy complained of a slight injury.

Later, a car operated by 16-year-old James S. Ward of East Palestine R. D. 1 ran off the south side of Route 172 near route 30, rolled over and landed on its wheels. The youth was reportedly injured but not treated in an area hospital. Patrol officials said they are continuing an investigation into both mishaps.

2 Will Launch Door-To-Door Study On Tax

A two - man crew will launch a citywide door - to - door survey Monday morning, interviewing householders and business places to bring records of the city income tax office up to date, Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson said today.

The study will be made by two college stuudents who are on summer vacations — William Brown of 1865 Idaho Ave. and Karl Oyster of 736 Laura Ave. Brown is a student at Case Institute of Technology at Cleveland and Oyster attends Mt. Union College in Alliance.

The work is expected to continue through Sept. 15. It is the first citywide tax survey since 1964.

Wilkinson said the study is being made primarily to update the tax office's records, particularly to show the names of any potential tax - payers not listed at present. It will begin on Lisbon St. at the city limits near 6th Ave., LaCroft.

The survey team will seek to list the name of each employed person in every household. If no one is at home when a call is made, a return visit will be set later.

Names are added to the tax lists primarily through persons moving into the area and by youths taking their first jobs. In the 1964 survey, the office added 300 new accounts to its lists, representing annual tax payments of $8,000 to $10,000. Each new account means at least $30 more a year for the city.

Wilkinson said the employes will carry credentials to identify themselves to householders and business people.

"We will appreciate the public's cooperation in answering questions," he said. "All information will be held confidential by the tax office."

The survey is expected to cost $2,000.

Meanwhile, Wilkinson said the tax office expects to file charges in Municipal Court the week of June 19 against the first in a list of persons who failed to meet the April 30 deadline for filing final returns on 1966 income and estimates of 1966 earnings. Ninety - five per cent of the individuals required to file the returns complied before the deadline, he said.

Wilkinson said he expects to file the charges in groups of 20 until all who failed to comply with the law have been haled into court.

3 Youths Hurt As Auto Dives End Over End

Three Glenmoor area youths escaped serious injury Friday afternoon when their car went out of control on the Freeway, struck a guardrail, then rebounded and flew end-over-end above the medial divider and landed on its top, police reported.

The injured were Robert Buckley Jr., 19, the driver, his brother, Jeff Buckley, 15, and a friend, Louis Volino, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Voline of Substation Rd.

The Volino boy and the younger Buckley boy were released after treatment at City Hospital for superficial cuts and bruises. The elder Buckley boy was admitted until study of X-rays showed the extent of his injuries. His condition was termed "satisfactory." The Buckley boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckley of the Y. & O. Rd.

The two youthful passengers told police the auto went out of control while southbound on the Freeway about a half-mile north of the West End bridge that spans the Wellsville Rd.

The car veered out of control when Robert reached toward the dash to turn off the radio, they related. The car slammed into guardrails, crossed the highway and then flipped end-over-end, clearing the fence that separates the northbound lanes from the southbound. The car came to a halt on its top on a grassy stretch near the northbound lanes.

The 1961 model four - door sedan, registered to Jean Buckley of the Y. & O. Rd., was written off as a total loss. The auto tore out six sections of steel guardrail and 10 posts, breaking four of the supports, officers said.

The driver was thrown clear as the car halted, but the two passengers remained inside. They told police they could remember little after the initial impact with the guardrail.

The boys said they were en route to East Liverpool to pick up some friends and then go swimming at Lake Marwin.

Patrolman K. J. Montgomery investigated. He cited Robert Buckley on a reckless driving charge.

A parked auto was damaged in another mishap Friday afternoon on Minerva St. 35 feet east of Walnut St.

The car was bumped by a 1959 model two-door sedan driven by Ruth Ann Wolfe, 22, of 945 Princeton Ave., officers said.

The collision damaged the left front fender of the Wolfe auto, which was eastbound on Minerva St. There was damage to the left front fender and door of the parked auto, which was identified only by a license number.

Slides Shown To Lions Club

Leo Lawrence, program chairman, screened slides during the meeting of the Lions Club Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

He described a recent trip to St. Louis, where he visited the botanical gardens, one of the world's largest and most beautiful. The gardens are enclosed by a plastic dome which allows several different climates to be simulated, permitting the growth of rare South American and African vegetation.

The restored residence of Henry Shaw, the gardens' founder, rests on the site. It is one of the oldest greenhouses in the world, Lawrence said.

Lawrence's slides also dealt with photos of the Phipps Conservatory at Pittsburgh during various shows there, the local Dahlia Society shows, his own garden and a trip to the Kingwood Center at Mansfield.

Charles Haugh is president of the club.

Area Mishap Injures Trio

Three were injured in a car-motorcycle collision Friday night on Route 7, south of Rogers, in one of two accidents investigated yesterday by the Highway Patrol.

Officers said a 1966 motorcycle driven by Kenneth E. Van Kirk, 28, of Rogers R. D. 1, collided with an auto operated by Richard A. Eddy of 805 Daisy Ln., East Liverpool, as both were rounding a curve.

Van Kirk was in "fairly good" condition this morning at City Hospital with contusions and a possible fracture of the left ankle and contusions of both legs and nose. He is stationed with the Army Alert Division at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

A passenger in the car, Phillis Eddy, also of 805 Daisy Ln., was released from the hospital after treatment for contusions of the right elbow. Eddy complained of a slight injury.

Later, a car operated by 16-year-old James S. Ward of East Palestine R. D. 1 ran off the south side of Route 172 near route 30, rolled over and landed on its wheels. The youth was reportedly injured but not treated in an area hospital. Patrol officials said they are continuing an investigation into both mishaps.

2 Will Launch Door-To-Door Study On Tax

A two - man crew will launch a citywide door - to - door survey Monday morning, interviewing householders and business places to bring records of the city income tax office up to date, Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson said today.

The study will be made by two college stuudents who are on summer vacations — William Brown of 1865 Idaho Ave. and Karl Oyster of 736 Laura Ave. Brown is a student at Case Institute of Technology at Cleveland and Oyster attends Mt. Union College in Alliance.

The work is expected to continue through Sept. 15. It is the first citywide tax survey since 1964.

Wilkinson said the study is being made primarily to update the tax office's records, particularly to show the names of any potential tax - payers not listed at present. It will begin on Lisbon St. at the city limits near 6th Ave., LaCroft.

The survey team will seek to list the name of each employed person in every household. If no one is at home when a call is made, a return visit will be set later.

Names are added to the tax lists primarily through persons moving into the area and by youths taking their first jobs. In the 1964 survey, the office added 300 new accounts to its lists, representing annual tax payments of $8,000 to $10,000. Each new account means at least $30 more a year for the city.

Wilkinson said the employes will carry credentials to identify themselves to householders and business people.

"We will appreciate the public's cooperation in answering questions," he said. "All information will be held confidential by the tax office."

The survey is expected to cost $2,000.

Meanwhile, Wilkinson said the tax office expects to file charges in Municipal Court the week of June 19 against the first in a list of persons who failed to meet the April 30 deadline for filing final returns on 1966 income and estimates of 1966 earnings. Ninety - five per cent of the individuals required to file the returns complied before the deadline, he said.

Wilkinson said he expects to file the charges in groups of 20 until all who failed to comply with the law have been haled into court.

3 Youths Hurt As Auto Dives End Over End

Three Glenmoor area youths escaped serious injury Friday afternoon when their car went out of control on the Freeway, struck a guardrail, then rebounded and flew end-over-end above the medial divider and landed on its top, police reported.

The injured were Robert Buckley Jr., 19, the driver, his brother, Jeff Buckley, 15, and a friend, Louis Volino, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Voline of Substation Rd.

The Volino boy and the younger Buckley boy were released after treatment at City Hospital for superficial cuts and bruises. The elder Buckley boy was admitted until study of X-rays showed the extent of his injuries. His condition was termed "satisfactory." The Buckley boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckley of the Y. & O. Rd.

The two youthful passengers told police the auto went out of control while southbound on the Freeway about a half-mile north of the West End bridge that spans the Wellsville Rd.

The car veered out of control when Robert reached toward the dash to turn off the radio, they related. The car slammed into guardrails, crossed the highway and then flipped end-over-end, clearing the fence that separates the northbound lanes from the southbound. The car came to a halt on its top on a grassy stretch near the northbound lanes.

The 1961 model four - door sedan, registered to Jean Buckley of the Y. & O. Rd., was written off as a total loss. The auto tore out six sections of steel guardrail and 10 posts, breaking four of the supports, officers said.

The driver was thrown clear as the car halted, but the two passengers remained inside. They told police they could remember little after the initial impact with the guardrail.

The boys said they were en route to East Liverpool to pick up some friends and then go swimming at Lake Marwin.

Patrolman K. J. Montgomery investigated. He cited Robert Buckley on a reckless driving charge.

A parked auto was damaged in another mishap Friday afternoon on Minerva St. 35 feet east of Walnut St.

The car was bumped by a 1959 model two-door sedan driven by Ruth Ann Wolfe, 22, of 945 Princeton Ave., officers said.

The collision damaged the left front fender of the Wolfe auto, which was eastbound on Minerva St. There was damage to the left front fender and door of the parked auto, which was identified only by a license number.

They were on the scene about two hours.

Ambulance

ported by James Lowe, Frank Duffy and Norman Bucher.

"No" votes were cast by Floyd Murray and Harold Maylone. Murray said he believes Council should have given consideration to a local firm — Lynn Ambulance Service, of which Mrs. Patricia Walker of May St. is president. Maylone indicated he believes the $1,200 subsidy proposed in the Steubenville pact is "too high."

—:—

ONE MAJOR point on which Council will seek to negotiate with D'Anniballe is his proposal that the city should pay for all "uncollectible" bills for service resulting from calls to the ambulance firm from the fire or police departments.

Malone said 287 ambulance runs resulted from police department calls in 1966, while 40 were the upshot of calls from the fire department. If the city assumed the cost of all such runs, it could boost the municipality's bill for ambulance service to $20,000 or $21,000 a year, including the subsidy, he said.

Council also will ask D'Anniballe about the possibility of him obtaining subsidies from trustees of the two adjoining townships — Liverpool and St. Clair —which in turn would allow a reduction in the subsidy the city would pay.

Council received written proposals from three firms and individuals Wednesday night, but one was tossed out almost immediately because it asked a $2,265-a-month subsidy. The proposal was filed by Edmond Braham Jr. of Jefferson St.

After reaching the tentative agreement on D'Anniballe's proposal last night, Council telephoned him at his home in Weirton and set up the conference today.

4 Cars Involved In Minor Wrecks

Four vehicles received relaively minor damage in two wrecks Friday afternoon and night.

In the first, at W. 6th and Jackson St. about 4:21 p.m., a car driven by Patricia L. Baughman, 16, of 21 Lincoln Ave., Salineville, collided with another driven by Charles Travis, Jr., 38, of MC 22 Lisbon St. Ext.

Miss Baughman told officers she was headed north on Jackson and as she crossed 6th St. the steering wheel broke, she had no control over the vehicle and struck the Travis vehicle going south on Jackson.

The girl was cited for driving without an operator's license. She will appear before juvenile authorities.

In the other accident, on E. 5th St. about 9 p.m., a car driven by Thomas O. Kiger, 27, of 735 Cadmus St. was struck from behind by a car which continued on after the collision.

Kiger told police he was forced to halt his car suddenly when a vehicle registered to Jenny Kraft of 233 Center St. struck his auto from behind.

Police are continuing the investigation.

OSES Unit To Visit City

This mobile unit of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation will be placed on display here Monday afternoon to demonstrate the manner in which the BUC extends its services to rural and other areas not near regular office sites.

It will be located in front of the East Liverpool Ohio State Employment Service on College St. from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Charles Boso, manager of the office here, said the BUC has two such vehicles in use to implement its programs dealing with hard core unemployment and human resources development.

The 35 - foot mobile unit has facilities for seven interviewers and seven employment specialists, testing devices, audio visual aides, pamphlets and other information for the public.

He said Ohio is the first to utilize this service.

Such mobile units eventually may be used in areas of western Columbiana County some distance from offices here and at Salem.

Appeal Made For Help On Cancer Fund

Those in the East Liverpool area who have not yet contributed to the Cancer Fund were urged to make donations today by drive officials.

Mrs. Audrey Newtz, drive chairman, said $3,778 has been contributed, below the goals set by the state and county.

Samuel W. Brown, past county chairman, said, "This could be a blow to how much aid we will be able to give next year to those who are in need."

Brown said the amount of help for cancer victims and research depends upon the money collected.

He said, "I take issue to some extent with The Review editorial criticizing traffic solicitations. I agree this is an inconvenience, and if it is illegal, I accept the newspaper's saying so. But is not the 'pandering' on the streets for tag days the same thing?"

roadblock, I'll stop and contri-

"If I go by on a tag day or bute, even if inconvenienced. This is the American way of life."

Brown said the traffic solicitations have aided the Cancer Fund, and pointed out the Cancer Fund is not a part of the United Fund.

"As a layman, I do not know why the organization does not belong, but if nationally the Cancer officials want us to conduct our own, then we will."

"Because we do not belong to the U.F., one of our good contributors of a few years back will no longer donate to our cause."

Mrs. Newtz expressed thanks to the volunteers and contributors in the recent crusade, and said donations are still acceptable.

New York Harbor is the world's largest port.

A 64-year-old area man was in "fair" condition today at City Hospital, where he was admitted Friday afternoon about 3 after falling nearly eight feet from a ladder while at work for the Sayre Electric Co. at the site of the new high school building.

Reynolds was reaching for a pair of pliers when the mishap occurred.

Ambulance

ported by James Lowe, Frank Duffy and Norman Bucher.

"No" votes were cast by Floyd Murray and Harold Maylone. Murray said he believes Council should have given consideration to a local firm — Lynn Ambulance Service, of which Mrs. Patricia Walker of May St. is president. Maylone indicated he believes the $1,200 subsidy proposed in the Steubenville pact is "too high."

—:—

ONE MAJOR point on which Council will seek to negotiate with D'Anniballe is his proposal that the city should pay for all "uncollectible" bills for service resulting from calls to the ambulance firm from the fire or police departments.

Malone said 287 ambulance runs resulted from police department calls in 1966, while 40 were the upshot of calls from the fire department. If the city assumed the cost of all such runs, it could boost the municipality's bill for ambulance service to $20,000 or $21,000 a year, including the subsidy, he said.

Council also will ask D'Anniballe about the possibility of him obtaining subsidies from trustees of the two adjoining townships — Liverpool and St. Clair —which in turn would allow a reduction in the subsidy the city would pay.

Council received written proposals from three firms and individuals Wednesday night, but one was tossed out almost immediately because it asked a $2,265-a-month subsidy. The proposal was filed by Edmond Braham Jr. of Jefferson St.

After reaching the tentative agreement on D'Anniballe's proposal last night, Council telephoned him at his home in Weirton and set up the conference today.

4 Cars Involved In Minor Wrecks

Four vehicles received relatively minor damage in two wrecks Friday afternoon and night.

In the first, at W. 6th and Jackson St. about 4:21 p.m., a car driven by Patricia L. Baughman, 16, of 21 Lincoln Ave., Salineville, collided with another driven by Charles Travis, Jr., 38, of MC 22 Lisbon St. Ext.

Miss Baughman told officers she was headed north on Jackson and as she crossed 6th St. the steering wheel broke, she had no control over the vehicle and struck the Travis vehicle going south on Jackson.

The girl was cited for driving without an operator's license. She will appear before juvenile authorities.

In the other accident, on E. 5th St. about 9 p.m., a car driven by Thomas O. Kiger, 27, of 735 Cadmus St. was struck from behind by a car which continued on after the collision.

Kiger told police he was forced to halt his car suddenly when a vehicle registered to Jenny Kraft of 233 Center St. struck his auto from behind.

Police are continuing the investigation.

NEW CUMBERLAND —Jake W. Baxter of 3rd Ave., police chief the last two years, has submitted his resignation effective July 1, according to Mrs. John P. Jones, mayor.

Baxter, who is also water and sewage department superintendent, notified officials Friday.

He indicated the decision was prompted by the increasing complexities and added duties of the two positions.

Baxter succeeded William Webster. The position is an appointed one and pays $475 a month.

OSES Unit To Visit City

This mobile unit of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation will be placed on display here Monday afternoon to demonstrate the manner in which the BUC extends its services to rural and other areas not near regular office sites.

It will be located in front of the East Liverpool Ohio State Employment Service on College St. from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Charles Boso, manager of the office here, said the BUC has two such vehicles in use to implement its programs dealing with hard core unemployment and human resources development.

The 35 - foot mobile unit has facilities for seven interviewers and seven employment specialists, testing devices, audio visual aides, pamphlets and other information for the public.

Boso invited area residents to visit the unit. Questions concerning any phase of the OSES will be answered by staff personnel.

He said Ohio is the first to utilize this service.

Such mobile units eventually may be used in areas of western Columbiana County some distance from offices here and at Salem.

Appeal Made For Help On Cancer Fund

Those in the East Liverpool area who have not yet contributed to the Cancer Fund were urged to make donations today by drive officials.

Mrs. Audrey Newtz, drive chairman, said $3,778 has been contributed, below the goals set by the state and county.

Samuel W. Brown, past county chairman, said, "This could be a blow to how much aid we will be able to give next year to those who are in need."

Brown said the amount of help for cancer victims and research depends upon the money collected.

He said, "I take issue to some extent with The Review editorial criticizing traffic solicitations. I agree this is an inconvenience, and if it is illegal, I accept the newspaper's saying so. But is not the 'pandering' on the streets for tag days the same thing?"

roadblock, I'll stop and contri-

"If I go by on a tag day or bute, even if inconvenienced. This is the American way of life."

Brown said the traffic solicitations have aided the Cancer Fund, and pointed out the Cancer Fund is not a part of the United Fund.

"As a layman, I do not know why the organization does not belong, but if nationally the Cancer officials want us to conduct our own, then we will."

"Because we do not belong to the U.F., one of our good contributors of a few years back will no longer donate to our cause."

Mrs. Newtz expressed thanks to the volunteers and contributors in the recent crusade, and said donations are still acceptable.

New York Harbor is the world's largest port.

Containment Of Commitment

With the Vietnam War grinding on and the close call in the Middle East fresh in mind, there is a good deal of discussion going on about the U.S. policy of commitment.

A story that has made the rounds tells of a chicken and a pig peering through the dining room window at a family having a breakfast of ham and eggs.

"Doesn't it make you feel good to know that you can make a contribution to the happiness and well being of a family like that?" the chicken asked.

Making a wry face, the pig replied, "For you it is a contribution, but for me it is total commitment."

The word "isolationism" crops up in conversations from time to time, though it is a known fact that such a policy is an impossibility in an age of international interdependence.

The fact isolationism thoughts come up at all is a reflection of the frustration over the bind the nation is in.

Backing out of our commitments around the world is unthinkable; but a policy of making sure we know what we are doing and are ready to take the consequences is another matter.

Hindsight is graced by 20-20 vision. Mistakes are easy to pick out in retrospect. But there usually are clues that tip off what to expect in various situations.

Critics of U.S. foreign policy are not asking for total abandonment of commitments, merely a close scrutiny of all factors prior to action.

This would apply to foreign aid and trade as well as military commitments.

The critics would like to see a trend toward a policy of cooperative "contribution" rather than a strict line of total commitment.

Parade Project?

The Midland Fourth of July Committee has issued a reminder on participation in the annual holiday parade which draws the attention of the tri-state district.

There are generally plenty of bands, marchers, pretty girls, fire trucks, comic groups and floats for spectators to enjoy, but there can always be more.

Who hasn't harbored a wish to take part in that happy procession, if they haven't already, and even win a prize?

Entry blanks are available at The Review or at the Midland News office or police station in Midland. Why not add a parade project to your picnic plans for the Fourth?

Our Dedicated Teachers

Each June when school is out for another summer vacation, a few people remember to say something nice about teachers, especially the ones who are closing out their careers.

There is one thing that needs to be said about teachers in general. They are one of a few genuinely dedicated occupational groups in the nation. If they weren't, we could give up all our rosy hopes of saving the people's freedom through universal education.

Only their sense of dedication keeps teachers going in the face of criticism by parents, indifference by pupils, lack of support by voters and a wage scale that puts them in the economic neighborhood of semi-skilled labor.

They have to believe in what they are doing, or they couldn't keep plugging away at it. They have to believe in the theory and practice of universal education, and they have to believe that in the long run everything will turn out to be better than it is in the short run.

Teachers are going to drop out of sight for the next few weeks — as teachers. They now will put on their summer hats as students, travelers, researchers, artisans, day laborers, clerks, factory workers, home-makers, farmers — all the things they do while schools remain closed by popular demand — not by teachers' demand, but popular demand.

May their sense of dedication to their useful jobs remain high.

Education depends on them.

Takes More Than An Apology

It is going to take a lot more than a throat-clearing apology to cover up the deaths and injuries of U.S. crewmen in an Israeli attack on the USS Liberty.

The U.S. government was quick to demand an explanation of the attack and the Israeli government just as quick to explain the attack was a mistake. But that does not close the book on this incident.

The attackers could not possibly have mistaken the U.S. vessel for anything but what it was — an unarmed ship flying the flag of a friendly country.

The United States has a right to know that harsh discipline has been inflicted on the Israeli officers who gave the command to open fire on a ship that could not have been identified as anything but what it was — an unarmed vessel showing neutral colors.

When the Israeli part of the gaffe has been cleared up, the Department of the Navy needs to explain why it sent an unarmed ship into a war zone without notifying the Israeli government.

If the attack on it had been made by Arab-bloc combatants, the consequences would have been even more serious. In that event, it would have been considered an overtly hostile act, tantamount to a declaration of war.

The United States was supposed to be bending over backward to avoid involvement in the Middle East fighting. A U.S. Navy vessel barging into the combat area with no warning to the combatants was as monstrous a goof as the Israeli attack.

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

Jasmina Belkacem, 24, is a young vivacious woman from Algeria whose legs were blown off when a time bomb she was carrying exploded prematurely as she was helping to fight Algeria's war of independence against the French.

It happened in a small town on the outskirts of Algiers, the nation's capital, in 1958 when she was 15 years old.

Now she is learning to walk on artificial legs at the Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine in New York City, where I have been a patient the last few weeks.

The bomb explosion also fractured her right elbow and wounded two nearby French policemen (Gendarmes) who required hospitalization for a few weeks.

Jasmina was taking the time bomb to place it at a building housing gendarmes and the French mayor's office in the suburban village. She was a block from her goal when the blast occurred.

She was in a French hospital ("It was awful") in Algiers for six months. She points to a small scar in the fold of her left elbow where she received copious amounts of blood by tranfusions.

Then came four years of misery in French prisons, two years in prisons in Algeria and two years in France. Her last prison was in Pau-Bas-Pyrennees in France, near the Spanish border.

The French released her in a prisoner trade about the time Algeria won its independence from France in July 1962.

That same year she first came to New York for rehabilitation and since then has had six operations to prepare her for artificial legs.

She has made two visits home to Algeria and now has been here since last November.

Her right leg is completely gone and only six inches of her left leg remain. Belts around her waist help keep the artificial legs in place.

On a visit back home in 1963, she went to a business school in Algiers and became proficient enough to become secretary to the chief of protocol of the Algerian government.

Jasmina is well-acquainted with both the Algerian ambassador to the United Nations in New York and with the Algerian ambassador in Washington. She sees them often.

Her brother and 20 of her relatives were killed in her country's war of independence. Her father, who died in 1954, had been a police officer under the French rule and her mother now lives near Algiers. When Jasmina is home she resides with a maid in a house in Algiers.

Faithfully yours
MAX

Teamsters Woo Gov. Reagan

By Victor Riesel

WASHINGTON — Once upon a mattress recently in the Lewisburg penitentiary, it suddenly occurred to Jimmy Hoffa that the Teamsters national headquarters and its policy makers are doing mighty little to "spring him" from prison — despite his rather impassioned cries of "get me out of here no matter what pressure you have to bring."

Victor Riesel

It is now a self-eviden truth that the Teamsters' leaders are making fiery speeches in his behalf but are pressuring no one really. Instead, they are bringing the Teamsters back into the mainstream of politics and labor.

In California there is the case of third vice president Einar Mohn, now easily the most influential and nationally respected of Teamsters.

As Director of the Western Conference of Teamsters, Mohn has been making his peace with Gov. Ronald Reagan and has directed his secondary echelons to go forth energetically and do likewise.

On my return from the West and Southwest, I was surprised to note that a history-making speech of Mohn's to hundreds of Western Conference officials had gone unnoticed. Mohn, a man of stature in his state, a member of the Board of Regents of the University of California by appointment of former Gov. Pat Brown, said in blunt phrases that the time had come for the end of antagonism towards Reagan in Teamsters' circles.

"HERE IN CALIFORNIA," Mohn told the Teamsters 27th Western Conference, "we put all of our chips on a good friend by the name of Brown. Pat Brown didn't win . . .

"Now that Ronald Reagan is our governor . . . and whoever was elected in your own state is your governor . . . it becomes our obligation to forget any bitterness that may have developed in the election campaign. All of us in any position of leadership must develope or re-establish contacts with leaders of the administration in his home state.

"If you haven't done so, go to work on it when you return."

Those who heard Mohn know he meant what he said to the Teamsters' officials from the Conference's 11 Western States — all but one of whom are Republicans.

"Our job is to represent our people," he continued, "and to do this, we must have contacts at all levels of government, especially with the governors."

Mohn advised his people, who speak for over 450,000 Teamsters and warehousemen, that he has attempted personally to accomplish this in California. And, he added, "we have succeeded to some extent."

Many California Teamsters now have a "personal, speaking relationship" with Governor Reagan and key officials in his administration.

THOSE CLOSE TO MOHN say that he has conferred with Reagan who gets raked regularly by the labor press and by other California union leaders. These talks, it was said, have been infrequent but friendly. One has only the word of Mohn's men in their Western fortress. But there is nothing uncertain in his speech. Nor did Mohn intend to keep it within the meeting's confines. Copies of the talk are now in the hands of rank and filers as well as the secondary leadership cadres.

This speech is more than a declaration of policy and politics — is a declaration of independence from Jim Hoffa and his image. It is old-fashioned Teamster-ism hauled up to date. There was the time, just before "Jimmy" broke out of the business agent class, when the International Brotherhood of Teamsters were politically potent nationally.

FOR SOME OF, one of our first stories was Franklin Roosevelt's choice of a Teamsters banquet to kick off one of his campaigns in the '40s. This relationship with the establishment in what Mohn and many other powerful Teamsters' chiefs now seek to re-establish. Their next move will be an application for readmission to the AFL-CIO. Then once again they will dine with presidents.

There is no place in these ploys and power plays for the imprisoned and outraged James Riddle Hoffa. Rapidly he is becoming the forgotten man. His messages even to his caretaker president "Fitz" Fitzsimmons grow more and more hysterical. And more and more they are being ignored.

Jimmy forgot the old maxim: Be nice to the people you pass on the way up, you may need them on the way down.

And the Teamsters' leaders of today are on their way up.

Anything Wrong With It?

By Truman Twill

New Yorkers are buying their new state lottery tickets as if they thought money would go out of style.

Individuals who would wire the governor if someone proposed to squeeze more tax revenue out of them are elbowing one another at lottery ticket outlets and being cheerful about the certainty they are forking over tax revenue under another name.

They don't mind kicking in for the support of their beloved state of New York, har-de-har-har, if they get a run for their money.

Shouldn't this give all peerless leaders an idea?

The only sour note in the New York lottery is the legalistic discord. There is moral discord, too, but it is being wafted away by realization that the main thing in separating taxpayers from money is to minimize their opportunity to struggle.

Federal taxation works better than local taxation because the taxpayer can't get close enough to Washington to hit anybody.

The closer the taxation gets to the taxpayer, the more trouble he can cause.

Therefore, the main object of taxation should be to get the money without unnecesary trouble. Quick, Kildare, the anesthetic.

So . . .

Put taxpayers' names or numbers or whatever might be needed in a lottery wheel and let a movie queen and a movie king draw out the winners, the grand-prize winner to get $50,000 tax-free and so on down the scale to $1,000 tax-free, plus an evening on the town with the movie personality of his or her choice.

This wouldn't make taxes any lower, but it would make them easier to bear.

It would keep taxpayers' minds off the pain of forking over the money they would like to keep to grubby, faceless officials.

All it takes is complete abandonment of the hangover from Puritan days that all worthwhile things must be paid for in suffering and anguish, starting with taxes.

Taxes never are going to be fun. But if taxes and lotteries were mixed up together, paying taxes would be less like going to the dentist to have a tooth pulled.

The other major benefit would be to clear up legal doubts about lotteries. It might even put a damper on moral challenges.

After all, nobody ever got tough with the Cracker-Jack people for putting a prize in every package, did they? And it helped to sell cracker jack.

There is no shortage of potential revenue in this country for every worthwhile public need. But there is an acute shortage of public willingness to stand still for taxes without some gimmick to ease the pain.

Hence, New York State's lottery. It is being supported heavily by non-New Yorkers. They, too, are jumping at a chance to doke in a buck for a good cause, if they have a chance to win back $100,000, plus lesser plums of substantial value.

Anything wrong with that?

Odd Facts

Statute of limitations is a law that provides a definite time limit in which legal action may be taken in certain cases. All legal rights and remedies in both criminal and civil law are barred after the time limit has passed. The law prevents lawsuits in which the true situation is clouded because of a long lapse of time, the death of witnesses, a failure of memory and other reasons.

The first official American flag, the Continental or Grand Union flag, was displayed on Prospect Hill Jan. 1, 1776, in the American lines besieging Boston. It had 13 alternate red and white stripes, with the British Union Jack in the upper left corner.

Lasting Peace?

Clearcut Agreement Needed

A "ceasefire" in the Middle East will be of little avail unless the United Nations explicitly sets forth the obligations of the belligerent parties.

Eleven years ago, when the latest armistice was put into effect in the Middle East, safeguards were not provided against a future breakdown.

President Nasser took advantage of this omission when he suddenly demanded last month that the U.N. emergency force be withdrawn. The Egyptian government used the argument that U.N. forces could operate on the territory of any given country only with "consent" of the government of that country.

The truth, however, is that consent once given to an international agreement cannot be withdrawn, except by sufficient notice and the opportunity for all parties to be consulted as to whether the previous pledges were violated.

When the U.N. emergency force was accepted by Egypt in 1956, the U.N. issued the following declaration:

"The United Nations, understanding this to correspond to the wishes of the government of Egypt, reaffirms its willingness to maintain the UNEF (United Nations Emergency Force) until its task is completed."

THE MISSION of the U.N. in the Middle East however, was not completed.

When President Nasser decided to re-open the whole question, the U.N. was faced with a decision as to whether it would accept the demand for withdrawal of the emergency force.

But Secretary-General Thant made the mistake of pulling out the force without even consulting the members of the Security Council, and Egypt thought it had a free hand to start a war.

Such a chain of circumstances can hardly be permitted to happen again. That is why the wording of the resolution for a "ceasefire," it may be assumed, will this time be sufficiently comprehensive to prevent any disregard of the provisions of the agreement.

Oddly enough, the conditions which prevailed 11 years ago are almost parallel with today's situation. Most significant are the words of President Eisenhower in an address to a joint session of Congress in 1957, when he said:

"Russia's rulers have long sought to dominate the Middle East. That was true of the czars and it is true of the Bolsheviks. The reasons are not hard to find. They do not affect Russia's security, for no one plans to use the Middle East as a base for aggression against Russia. Never for a moment has the United States entertained such a thought.

"The Soviet Union has nothing whatsoever to fear from the United States in the Middle East, or anywhere else in the world, so long as its rulers do not themselves first resort to aggression. That statement I make solemnly and emphatically."

Today, the Soviet Union is in a position to alter its policy of supporting aggression and can become a respected partner of the Free World.

ALTHOUGH A request for a "cease fire" came from the U.N. Security Council with the approval of the Soviet government, the real problem is how it shall be applied and, if necessary, enforced.

Will the U.N. now send a small peacekeeping army to maintain order in the Middle East while negotiations for a permanent settlement are in progress?

Or will the U.N. refrain from any action and expect both the Arab states and Israel to abide by the armistice without imposing any penalty for violations?

Will the next few months of an armistice period be used by Egypt to rebuild its air power and then resume the conflict?

The Middle East can explode again if one or the other of the parties suddenly decides to break the "cease fire" agreement with the specious argument that "consent," once given, can be withdrawn at any time.

The Soviet Union has great influence with the Arab countries, and the United States is on friendly terms with Israel.

Certainly the two major powers of the world are in a position to bring peace to the Middle East and bring adoption of an agreement that will not be subject to arbitrary termination.

Containment Of Commitment

With the Vietnam War grinding on and the close call in the Middle East fresh in mind, there is a good deal of discussion going on about the U.S. policy of commitment.

A story that has made the rounds tells of a chicken and a pig peering through the dining room window at a family having a breakfast of ham and eggs.

"Doesn't it make you feel good to know that you can make a contribution to the happiness and well being of a family like that?" the chicken asked.

Making a wry face, the pig replied, "For you it is a contribution, but for me it is total commitment."

The word "isolationism" crops up in conversations from time to time, though it is a known fact that such a policy is an impossibility in an age of international interdependence.

The fact isolationism thoughts come up at all is a reflection of the frustration over the bind the nation is in.

Backing out of our commitments around the world is unthinkable; but a policy of making sure we know what we are doing and are ready to take the consequences is another matter.

Hindsight is graced by 20-20 vision. Mistakes are easy to pick out in retrospect. But there usually are clues that tip off what to expect in various situations.

Critics of U.S. foreign policy are not asking for total abandonment of commitments, merely a close scrutiny of all factors prior to action.

This would apply to foreign aid and trade as well as military commitments.

The critics would like to see a trend toward a policy of cooperative "contribution" rather than a strict line of total commitment.

Parade Project?

The Midland Fourth of July Committee has issued a reminder on participation in the annual holiday parade which draws the attention of the tri-state district.

There are generally plenty of bands, marchers, pretty girls, fire trucks, comic groups and floats for spectators to enjoy, but there can always be more.

Who hasn't harbored a wish to take part in that happy procession, if they haven't already, and even win a prize?

Entry blanks are available at The Review or at the Midland News office or police station in Midland. Why not add a parade project to your picnic plans for the Fourth?

Our Dedicated Teachers

Each June when school is out for another summer vacation, a few people remember to say something nice about teachers, especially the ones who are closing out their careers.

There is one thing that needs to be said about teachers in general. They are one of a few genuinely dedicated occupational groups in the nation. If they weren't, we could give up all our rosy hopes of saving the people's freedom through universal education.

Only their sense of dedication keeps teachers going in the face of criticism by parents, indifference by pupils, lack of support by voters and a wage scale that puts them in the economic neighborhood of semi-skilled labor.

They have to believe in what they are doing, or they couldn't keep plugging away at it. They have to believe in the theory and practice of universal education, and they have to believe that in the long run everything will turn out to be better than it is in the short run.

Teachers are going to drop out of sight for the next few weeks — as teachers. They now will put on their summer hats as students, travelers, researchers, artisans, day laborers, clerks, factory workers, home-makers, farmers — all the things they do while schools remain closed by popular demand — not by teachers' demand, but popular demand.

May their sense of dedication to their useful jobs remain high.

Education depends on them.

Takes More Than An Apology

It is going to take a lot more than a throat-clearing apology to cover up the deaths and injuries of U.S. crewmen in an Israeli attack on the USS Liberty.

The U.S. government was quick to demand an explanation of the attack and the Israeli government just as quick to explain the attack was a mistake. But that does not close the book on this incident.

The attackers could not possibly have mistaken the U.S. vessel for anything but what it was — an unarmed ship flying the flag of a friendly country.

The United States has a right to know that harsh discipline has been inflicted on the Israeli officers who gave the command to open fire on a ship that could not have been identified as anything but what it was — an unarmed vessel showing neutral colors.

When the Israeli part of the gaffe has been cleared up, the Department of the Navy needs to explain why it sent an unarmed ship into a war zone without notifying the Israeli government.

If the attack on it had been made by Arab-bloc combatants, the consequences would have been even more serious. In that event, it would have been considered an overtly hostile act, tantamount to a declaration of war.

The United States was supposed to be bending over backward to avoid involvement in the Middle East fighting. A U.S. Navy vessel barging into the combat area with no warning to the combatants was as monstrous a goof as the Israeli attack.

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

Jasmina Belkacem, 24, is a young vivacious woman from Algeria whose legs were blown off when a time bomb she was carrying exploded prematurely as she was helping to fight Algeria's war of independence against the French.

It happened in a small town on the outskirts of Algiers, the nation's capital, in 1958 when she was 15 years old.

Now she is learning to walk on artificial legs at the Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine in New York City, where I have been a patient the last few weeks.

The bomb explosion also fractured her right elbow and wounded two nearby French policemen (Gendarmes) who required hospitalization for a few weeks.

Jasmina was taking the time bomb to place it at a building housing gendarmes and the French mayor's office in the suburban village. She was a block from her goal when the blast occurred.

She was in a French hospital ("It was awful") in Algiers for six months. She points to a small scar in the fold of her left elbow where she received copious amounts of blood by tranfusions.

Then came four years of misery in French prisons, two years in prisons in Algeria and two years in France. Her last prison was in Pau-Bas-Pyrennees in France, near the Spanish border.

The French released her in a prisoner trade about the time Algeria won its independence from France in July 1962.

That same year she first came to New York for rehabilitation and since then has had six operations to prepare her for artificial legs.

She has made two visits home to Algeria and now has been here since last November.

Her right leg is completely gone and only six inches of her left leg remain. Belts around her waist help keep the artificial legs in place.

On a visit back home in 1963, she went to a business school in Algiers and became proficient enough to become secretary to the chief of protocol of the Algerian government.

Jasmina is well-acquainted with both the Algerian ambassador to the United Nations in New York and with the Algerian ambassador in Washington. She sees them often.

Her brother and 20 of her relatives were killed in her country's war of independence. Her father, who died in 1954, had been a police officer under the French rule and her mother now lives near Algiers. When Jasmina is home she resides with a maid in a house in Algiers.

Faithfully yours

Teamsters Woo Gov. Reagan

By Victor Riesel

WASHINGTON — Once upon a mattress recently in the Lewisburg penitentiary, it suddenly occurred to Jimmy Hoffa that the Teamsters national headquarters and its policy makers are doing mighty little to "spring him" from prison — despite his rather impassioned cries of "get me out of here no matter what pressure you have to bring."

Victor Riesel

It is now a self-eviden truth that the Teamsters' leaders are making fiery speeches in his behalf but are pressuring no one really. Instead, they are bringing the Teamsters back into the mainstream of politics and labor.

In California there is the case of third vice president Einar Mohn, now easily the most influential and nationally respected of Teamsters.

As Director of the Western Conference of Teamsters, Mohn has been making his peace with Gov. Ronald Reagan and has directed his secondary echelons to go forth energetically and do likewise.

On my return from the West and Southwest, I was surprised to note that a history-making speech of Mohn's to hundreds of Western Conference officials had gone unnoticed. Mohn, a man of stature in his state, a member of the Board of Regents of the University of California by appointment of former Gov. Pat Brown, said in blunt phrases that the time had come for the end of antagonism towards Reagan in Teamsters' circles.

"HERE IN CALIFORNIA," Mohn told the Teamsters 27th Western Conference, "we put all of our chips on a good friend by the name of Brown. Pat Brown didn't win . . .

"Now that Ronald Reagan is our governor . . . and whoever was elected in your own state is your governor . . . it becomes our obligation to forget any bitterness that may have developed in the election campaign. All of us in any position of leadership must develope or re-establish contacts with leaders of the administration in his home state.

"If you haven't done so, go to work on it when you return."

Those who heard Mohn know he meant what he said to the Teamsters' officials from the Conference's 11 Western States — all but one of whom are Republicans.

"Our job is to represent our people," he continued, "and to do this, we must have contacts at all levels of government, especially with the governors."

Mohn advised his people, who speak for over 450,000 Teamsters and warehousemen, that he has attempted personally to accomplish this in California. And, he added, "we have succeeded to some extent."

Many California Teamsters now have a "personal, speaking relationship" with Governor Reagan and key officials in his administration.

THOSE CLOSE TO MOHN say that he has conferred with Reagan who gets raked regularly by the labor press and by other California union leaders. These talks, it was said, have been infrequent but friendly. One has only the word of Mohn's men in their Western fortress. But there is nothing uncertain in his speech. Nor did Mohn intend to keep it within the meeting's confines. Copies of the talk are now in the hands of rank and filers as well as the secondary leadership cadres.

This speech is more than a declaration of policy and politics — is a declaration of independence from Jim Hoffa and his image. It is old-fashioned Teamster-ism hauled up to date. There was the time, just before "Jimmy" broke out of the business agent class, when the International Brotherhood of Teamsters were politically potent nationally.

FOR SOME OF, one of our first stories was Franklin Roosevelt's choice of a Teamsters banquet to kick off one of his campaigns in the '40s. This relationship with the establishment in what Mohn and many other powerful Teamsters' chiefs now seek to re-establish. Their next move will be an application for readmission to the AFL-CIO. Then once again they will dine with presidents.

There is no place in these ploys and power plays for the imprisoned and outraged James Riddle Hoffa. Rapidly he is becoming the forgotten man. His messages even to his caretaker president "Fitz" Fitzsimmons grow more and more hysterical. And more and more they are being ignored.

Jimmy forgot the old maxim: Be nice to the people you pass on the way up, you may need them on the way down.

And the Teamsters' leaders of today are on their way up.

Anything Wrong With It?

By Truman Twill

New Yorkers are buying their new state lottery tickets as if they thought money would go out of style.

Individuals who would wire the governor if someone proposed to squeeze more tax revenue out of them are elbowing one another at lottery ticket outlets and being cheerful about the certainty they are forking over tax revenue under another name.

They don't mind kicking in for the support of their beloved state of New York, har-de-har-har, if they get a run for their money.

Shouldn't this give all peerless leaders an idea?

The only sour note in the New York lottery is the legalistic discord. There is moral discord, too, but it is being wafted away by realization that the main thing in separating taxpayers from money is to minimize their opportunity to struggle.

Federal taxation works better than local taxation because the taxpayer can't get close enough to Washington to hit anybody.

The closer the taxation gets to the taxpayer, the more trouble he can cause.

Therefore, the main object of taxation should be to get the money without unnecesary trouble. Quick, Kildare, the anesthetic.

So . . .

Put taxpayers' names or numbers or whatever might be needed in a lottery wheel and let a movie queen and a movie king draw out the winners, the grand-prize winner to get $50,000 tax-free and so on down the scale to $1,000 tax-free, plus an evening on the town with the movie personality of his or her choice.

"The United Nations, understanding this to correspond to the wishes of the government of Egypt, reaffirms its willingness to maintain the UNEF (United Nations Emergency Force) until its task is completed."

THE MISSION of the U.N. in the Middle East however, was not completed.

When President Nasser decided to re-open the whole question, the U.N. was faced with a decision as to whether it would accept the demand for withdrawal of the emergency force.

Will the next few months of an armistice period be used by Egypt to rebuild its air power and then resume the conflict?

The Middle East can explode again if one or the other of the parties suddenly decides to break the "cease fire" agreement with the specious argument that "consent," once given, can be withdrawn at any time.

The Soviet Union has great influence with the Arab countries, and the United States is on friendly terms with Israel.

Certainly the two major powers of the world are in a position to bring peace to the Middle East and bring adoption of an agreement that will not be subject to arbitrary termination.

Presbyterian Assembly Tackles Controversies

By GERALD SEGROVES

BRISTOL, Tenn. (AP) — The 107th general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. considers today a report which describes the church's Mississippi Synod as having "a strong antiassembly attitude."

The report was prepared by a committee formed last year to study "apparent unrest and disorder" in the Mississippi Synod.

No specific recommendations were made by the committee, but it said an "antiassembly attitude" was prevalent in the synod.

"Back of this attitude is the conviction on the part of many in the synod that the assembly has departed from the faith set out in its standards," the committee said.

The report is one of several controversial issues facing the assembly. A report to be presented Monday concerns a joint committee with the Reformed Church in America, which is considering a plan of merger for the two denominations.

The Reformed Church is holding its annual meeting here in conjunction with the Presbyterian assembly.

The delegates on Friday elected the Rev. Dr. Coleman Marshall Dendy, executive secretary of the church's Board of Christian Education in Richmond, Va., for the past 14 years, as the denomination's moderator.

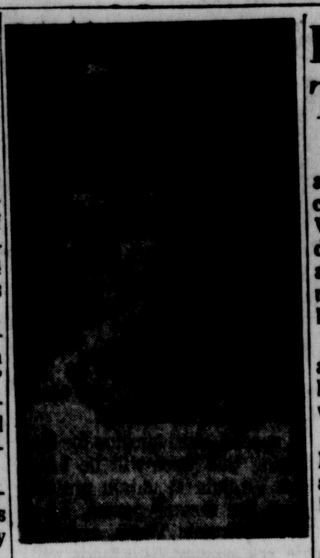

Dr. Dendy, at a news conference, described himself as a "progressive conservative," explaining: "I am rather conservative in my theology and rather aggressive in my application of it."

He said he favors participation in two ecumenical groups which have stirred controversy among Southern churchmen—the National Council of Churches and the Consultation on Church Union.

The new moderator headed the presbyteries of South Carolina, Knoxville, St. Johns and Florida before assuming the Richmond post.

Dr. Dendy was chosen by a single vote, 226-225, over his third cousin, the Rev. Dr. Patrick D. Miller, professor of homiletics at Columbia Theological Seminary, Decatur, Ga. A subsequent motion made his election unanimous.

Both men come from an area described by the new moderator as "the red clay county" of Franklin in north Georgia.

Church Acquires Property Here

The congregation of the Wellsville Baptist Temple has acquired the property of the former Baptist Church on Bradshaw Ave. and will be known as the Grace Baptist Temple. The Rev. Gaylord Cox Sr. is pastor.

The church will begin regular services with Sunday School and morning worship tomorrow.

The church began in Wellsville with three small families meeting in a private home. About two months later, on Nov. 1, 1965, Sunday School and worship services were begun in the building at 519 Main St., Wellsville, where services were continued until the present time.

Cox, who was youth director and teacher at the Carrollton Baptist Temple, was called. He and his wife, Duantice, and family, plan to move to an address in the community within the next few weeks from Paris, Ohio.

The church will operate a bus between Wellsville and East Liverpool for the convenience of those who wish to attend the services. The bus also will be used in conjunction with Youth Fellowship when it is necessary to travel.

"The temple is a chartered, nonprofit organization and is independent in its affiliations, conservative in its doctrine and evangelistic in its approach to the needs of mankind," its officials pointed out.

At present 92 are enrolled in the Sunday School, with an average attendance of 70 weekly. The Sunday School and church services have shown a steady increase almost from the beginning and are now growing at a rate of 30 per cent yearly.

A MOMENT OF MEDITATION

LOOKING FOR A BARGAIN?

Each one of us at some time or other, has gone on the search for a bargain. What we really are wanting is to find a product of high quality but at a very low cost. We want something for nothing. Generally speaking, we get just about what we pay for.

Some have expressed about this same attitude in regard to religion. Many have been seeking a religion that will provide them with all the high benefits of Christianity but that will not cost anything. They want a religion of convenience that will not make any demands on their lives. Such a religion is not the religion of Jesus Christ.

In a very real sense, the religion of Christ is a bargain but this does not mean that there will be no demands on our lives. Yes, we do receive the very highest quality for the very low price. However, that price must be payed! Jesus said this in Mt. 16:24-28. "Then said Jesus unto his disciples, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever shall save his life life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" In these verses the Lord makes it clear that there is a definite price that must be payed in order to receive the blessings of Christianity. However, when we have payed that price, it is well worth it because in so doing we are saving the soul.

The Apostle Paul, even after suffering severe persecution as he lived for Christ, considered this price that he payed to be very small in comparison with the great reward of Christianity. Rom. 8:18. "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us."

Yes, Christianity does cost something. It costs you a life of faithful service for which the Lord died. In order to be blessed by Christianity we must be willing to pay the price.

Yes, Christianity is a real bargain. The price is very low in comparison with the great rewards that we shall receive. We are not only benefited in this life but also in the life which is to come. 1 Tim. 4:8.

Are you willing to pay the price? Do not expect to receive all the blessings of God without any cost to you. It cost God the life of His Son to make it possible for us to be saved. Jesus gave his life for us. It is not too much for God to ask us to devote our lives to Him.

You are cordially invited to worship with us at the Church of Christ tomorrow.

A MOMENT OF MEDITATION

LOOKING FOR A BARGAIN?

Each one of us at some time or other, has gone on the search for a bargain. What we really are wanting is to find a product of high quality but at a very low cost. We want something for nothing. Generally speaking, we get just about what we pay for.

Some have expressed about this same attitude in regard to religion. Many have been seeking a religion that will provide them with all the high benefits of Christianity but that will not cost anything. They want a religion of convenience that will not make any demands on their lives. Such a religion is not the religion of Jesus Christ.

In a very real sense, the religion of Christ is a bargain but this does not mean that there will be no demands on our lives. Yes, we do receive the very highest quality for the very low price. However, that price must be payed! Jesus said this in Mt. 16:24-26.

"Then said Jesus unto his disciples, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever shall save his life life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" In these verses the Lord makes it clear that there is a definite price that must be paved in order to receive the blessings of Christianity. However, when we have payed that price, it is well worth it because in so doing we are saving the soul.

The Apostle Paul, even after suffering severe persecution as he lived for Christ, considered this price that he payed to be very small in comparison with the great reward of Christianity. Rom. 8:18. "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us."

Yes, Christianity does cost something. It costs you a life of faithful service for which the Lord died. In order to be blessed by Christianity we must be willing to pay the price.

Yes, Christianity is a real bargain. The price is very low in comparison with the great rewards that we shall receive. We are not only benefited in this life but also in the life which is to come. 1 Tim. 4:8.

Are you willing to pay the price? Do not expect to receive all the blessings of God without any cost to you. It cost God the life of His Son to make it possible for us to be saved. Jesus gave his life for us. It is not too much for God to ask us to devote our lives to Him.

You are cordially invited to worship with us at the Church of Christ tomorrow.

We are devoted to the high ideals of Memorial Art, designing and fabrication of monuments and markers.

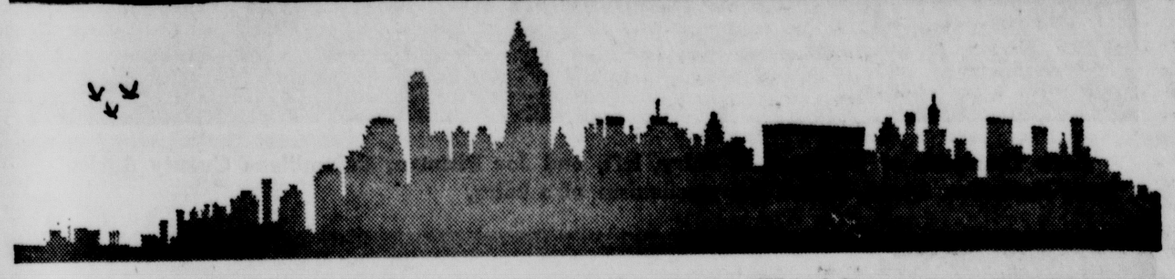

We hope you will feel free to visit our fully stocked showroom where you can shop in comfort and privacy and actually see what you are purchasing. Stop in at your convenience and if you need transportation to our office . . give us a call.

What marvelous buildings has man erected through the centuries. What lofty and inspiring structures has he created.

But how many of these glorious accomplishments stand intact today? We can see famous ruins the world over — mute reminders that what man builds is not permanent.

Today our buildings contain great slabs of concrete holding hidden wire and steel that will not break with stress. But can we be sure that today's creations will be standing a hundred years or two hundred years from now? Of course not.

Of what can we be certain? What does last?

Certainly the gifts of God tower indestructibly today as they have for generations . . . the things of the spirit — faith, hope and love. Our church buildings may crumble or be destroyed, but the fellowship of believers is perpetual throughout the ages.

Discover for yourself the great spiritual truths. Discover for yourself through His Church, those things which endure forever.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

What marvelous buildings has man erected through the centuries. What lofty and inspiring structures has he created.

But how many of these glorious accomplishments stand intact today? We can see famous ruins the world over — mute reminders that what man builds is not permanent.

Today our buildings contain great slabs of concrete holding hidden wire and steel that will not break with stress. But can we be sure that today's creations will be standing a hundred years or two hundred years from now? Of course not.

Of what can we be certain? What does last?

Certainly the gifts of God tower indestructibly today as they have for generations . . . the things of the spirit — faith, hope and love. Our church buildings may crumble or be destroyed, but the fellowship of believers is perpetual throughout the ages.

Discover for yourself the great spiritual truths. Discover for yourself through His Church, those things which endure forever.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

From field and farm to suburban patio and downtown street corner the burgeoning services of the Columbiana County Extension office have spread from Lisbon over the past 50 years.

Not only farmers and rural residents benefit from the programs offered by the extension service, for its area of operations now embrace 4-H'ers in the East End, West End families interested in budget planning and Wellsville women who upholster chairs.

The County Extension program began in the county in 1917 with the initial organizing sponsored by the Farm Bureau.

E. G. Hibbs was the first agricultural agent. By 1918 the home economics program was started with major emphasis on food conservation demonstrations as a World War I measure.

The same year seven boys and girls 4-H clubs were organized with 155 members.

THE PRIME WORK of the early days of the office was service to farmers and homemakers through demonstrations across the county.

By 1921, the county agent's report indicated the scope of the work—"A total of 76 poultry culling demonstrations was held with 2,110 producers attending, represening 52,000 chickens."

Today a variety of teaching approaches is employed, including newspapers and radio, group meetings and individual visits.

Floyd Lower, now designated as county agent emeritus, served 37 of the 50 years of the Extension service in the county, and is credited with a number of major accomplishments.

Lower, who was succeeded by Don Myers in 1963, was implemental in forming or aiding in organizing a large number of programs and organizations, including the county conservation committee which became the Parks and Forests Council; Soil Conservation Service; Agriculturaal Stablization and Conservation Committee; Fruit Growers Cooperative; Col-Mah County Potato Group; Poultry Cooperative; and Ruritan, serving as national president.

He has been president of the Regional Planning Commission for three years, and busy in other current activies.

TODAY NEARLY 1,500 farmers, 1,900 homemakers and 1,500 4-H'ers are directly involved in the Extension program, and many thousands more across the county receive help through news articles, talks and other means.

Joe Pittman, a native of Monroe County, is the current county agriculture agent.

Pittman, 31, has a bachelor and master's degree from Ohio State in agriculture education and agriculture economics. He resides north of Lisbon with his wife and three children.

Miss Ann Overturf, home economics agent, and Robert B. Lewis, 4-H agent, with Pittman and the rest of the staff keep a busy schedule of meetings and activities each week.

Miss Overturf, a native of Utica, eareed a bachelor degree at Ohio State, and plans to marry in September.

Lewis, 28, is from Wyandot County, and has a bachelor degree from Ohio State and a master's degree in agriculture education from Michigan State University.

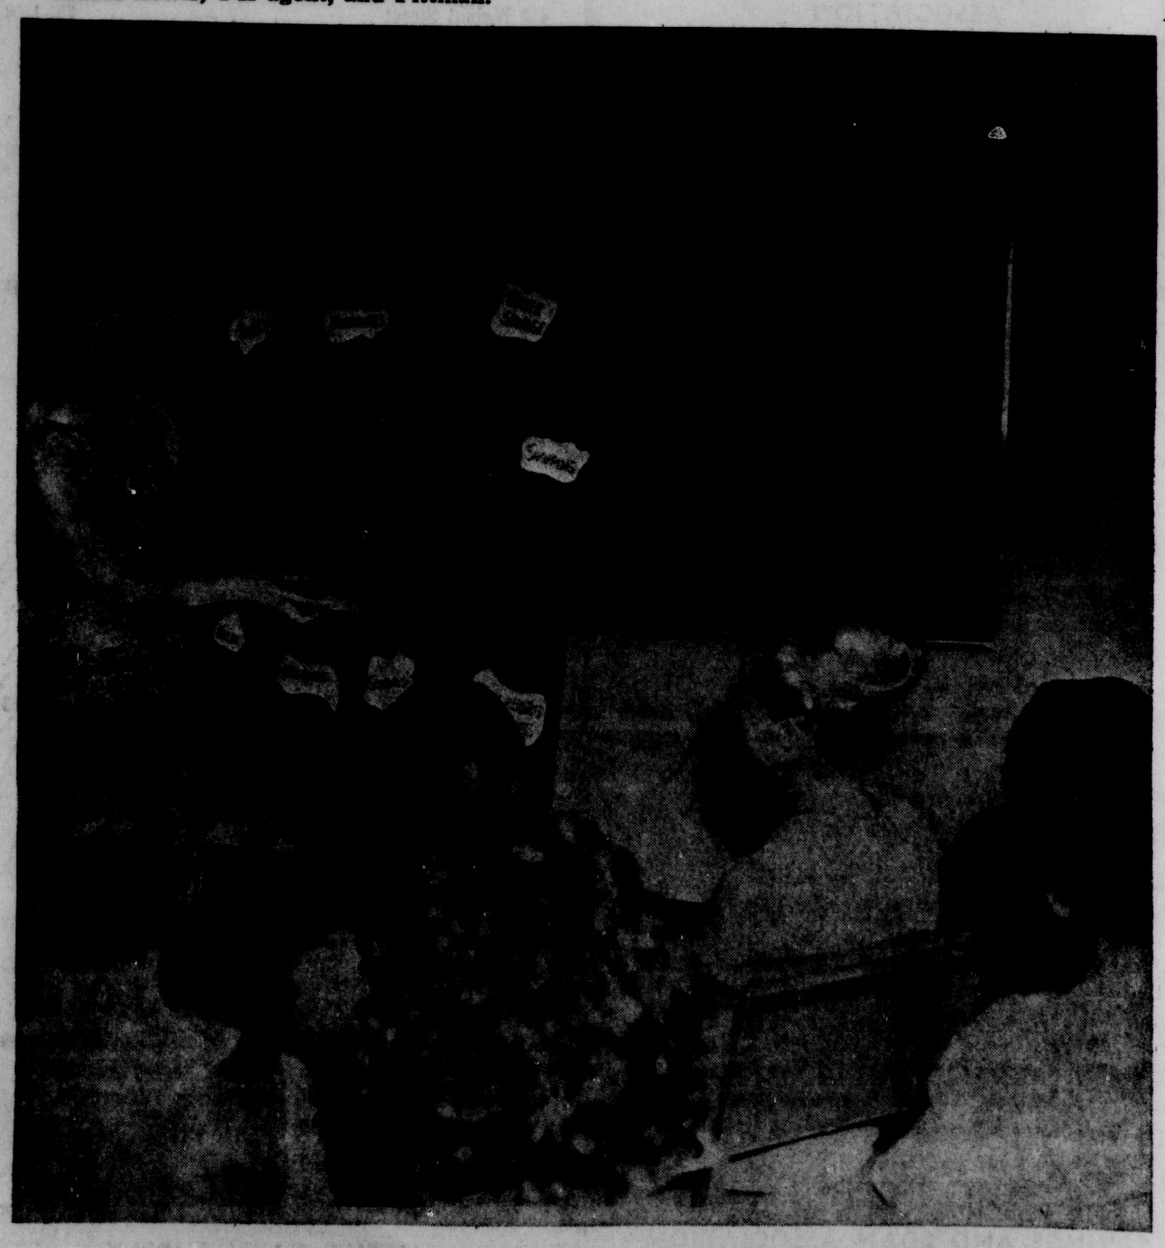

The three secretaries are Mrs. Lucille Houston of Wellsville R. D., Mrs. Jane Donbar of Columbiana and Miss Karen Perry of Leetonia.

SOME OF the services available to people of the county include bulletins on practically every phase of agriculture, including gardening and lawns, and on home economics—from furniture repair to family budgeting.

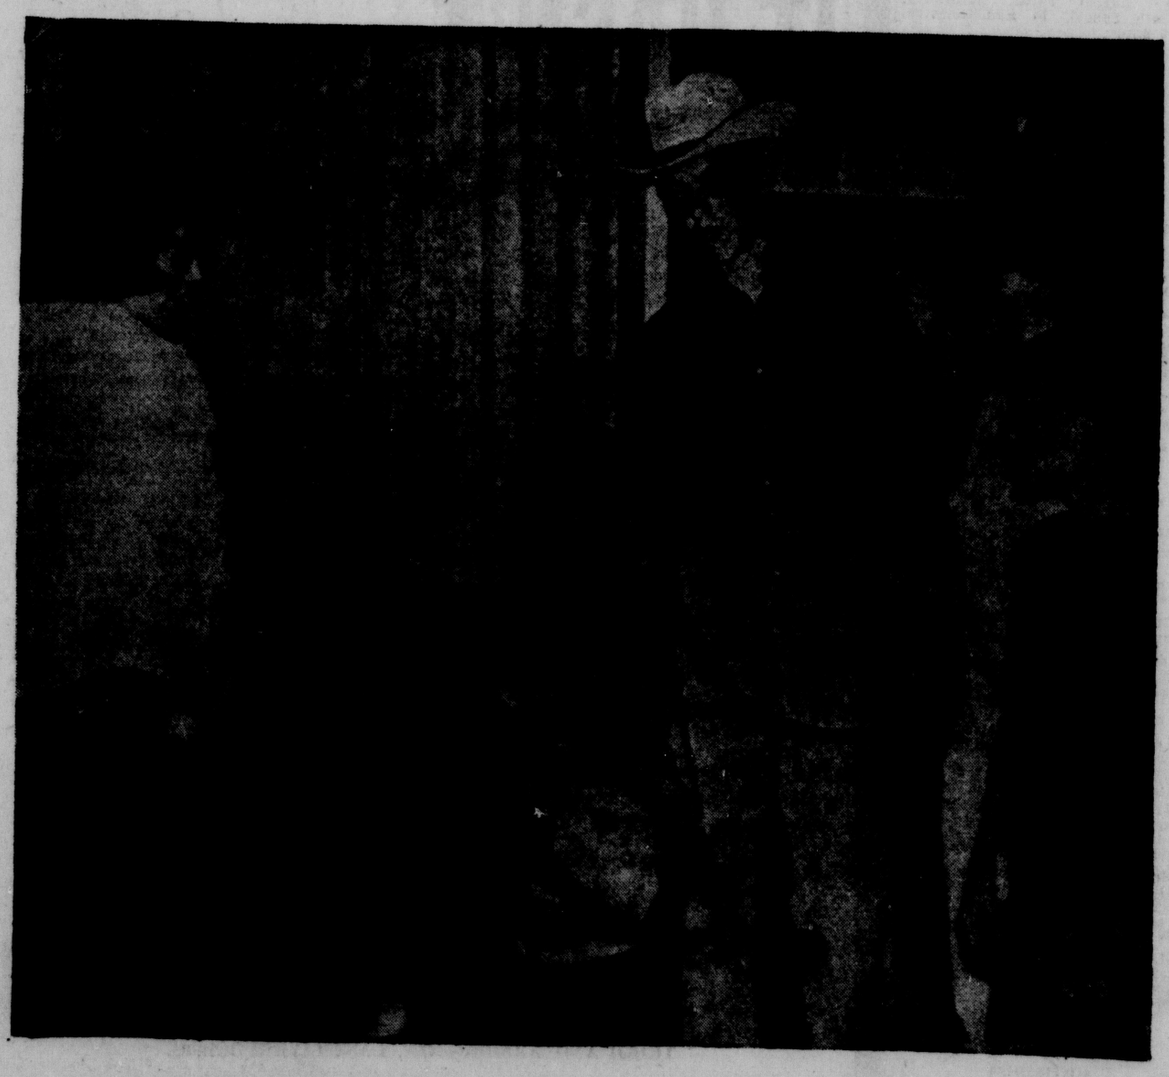

These bulletins along with the 4-H booklets are provided free by Ohio State University to anyone in the county.

The Extension Service also makes available soil tests, insect identification, plant disease and leaf analysis at a minimum cost.

Films, newsletters, U.S. Department of Agriculture services and materials are a few of the other programs offered through the Lisbon office.

Miss Overturf uses a flannelgraph to explain a point to a home economics class, one of many instruction programs of the county office.

Outdoor Notes

By HARRY STEWART
Review Staff Member

IF THE ROAD kill is any indication of the deer population in any given area — and it usually is — the herds in Columbiana County are increasing. Eight have been claimed on the highways in the past two weeks.

This is one of the highest road kills ever registered in this county in a two-week period. It may be the record.

Two of the deer were bucks and the others does. One of the does was ready to deliver her young. When cut open she was found to be carrying twin fawns. It was too late to save them.

Females are now dropping their fawns. When they begin labor, they usually separate from the herds and the bucks to select a place for the birth.

Motorists should use extreme caution when traveling along secondary roads as well as the main highways. Deer seem to freeze at times or become confused by the glare of auto headlights in their eyes.

Hitting a deer can cause heavy damage to your car. It may even cause you to lose control of the vehicle and have a more serious mishap.

PENNSYLVANIA'S DEER population has grown to the extent the Game Commission has extended some of the hunting seasons and directed the sale of additional antlerless licenses.

A three-day antlerless season will be held this year for the first time since 1959. The dates will be Dec. 11, 12, and 16. The Saturday date of Dec. 11 was selected as the final day of antlerless season so more hunters will have an opportunity to participate.

Aside from this, the commission also included the "bad weather" clause. In case of inclement weather additional days of hunting may be designated. It will depend on the earlier harvest of the whitetails.

Beaver County's allocation of antlerless licenses will be 1,450.

The statewide total will be 445,400, an increase of 64,500 over last year's 380,900, the previous record.

Glenn L. Bowers, commission executive director, said "We simply must harvest more deer. If the hunters don't then starvation will take a far heavier toll."

The population has exceeded the natural food supply. Despite the heavy harvest last year, there was a large carryover of deer because of the mild winter, and another big fawn crop is being produced now.

Bear season will be Nov. 20-25. The archery season for deer will open statewide Sept. 30. The regular gun season for antlered deer will be Nov. 27 to Dec. 9.

Squirrel and ruffed grouse season will be Oct. 14 through Nov. 25 and Dec. 26 to Jan. 6, 1968.

Turkey season is Oct. 28 to Nov. 18. Rabbit season is Oct. 28 through Nov. 25 and Dec. 26 to Jan. 6, 1968.

Pheasant and quail seasons coincide with the first part of rabbit season.

Basically, all bag limits remain the same as last year.

On the first day of small game season—Oct. 28—the opening hour will be 9 a.m., DST. Shooting hours for other days and seasons, including migratory birds, will be announced later.

WHAT WITH MORE and more people moving to the urban areas, the animals must have decided to move into town.

Ernest Menough of 514 College St. discovered a large opposum perched on the fence in his back yard early Sunday morning.

Tippy, a pet dog, started raising a fuss when he was left out the rear door. Menough investigated and found the dog had chased the possum up the fence where it remained perched.

Menough decide to try out a new camera and took three pictures. He says even the flash did not disturb the animal.

At Echo Dell Trailer Court near Beaver Creek State Park there is a raccoon that has become so tame that it visits homes there in the evenings.

The coon almost invariably goes to the trailer of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Drane. They allow it inside where it sits up to eat food.

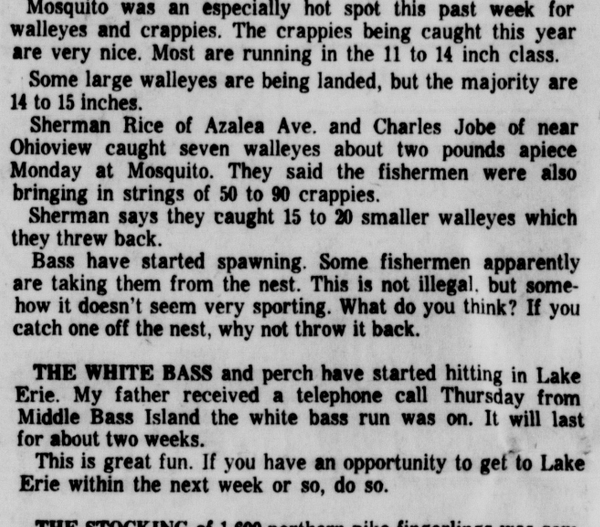

It also visits their neighbors and some even claim it will sit in the chairs on the porch.

After it is tired of visiting, the coon returns to the nearby woods.

A FISHING TRIP for John and Jane Kwasnik of 409 Almont St. to Arkansas proved very fruitful.

Jane landed a 9-pound, 5-ounce walleye on the trip. She caught it June 1 while fishing from Cornell's Resort, Promise Land Area at Mountain Home, Ark. This is a Bull Shoals Lake.

In addition to the large walleye, they caught several other fish, including 50 white bass in the 2 to 4 pound class, their limit on small mouth bass each day and rainbow trout up to 6 pounds.

LAKES AND STREAMS in the entire area are in excellent shape for fishing.

The bad feature is the "green moss" that seems to clog Beaver Creek and some lakes at this time of year. This is an annual occurence and the algae condition cannot be avoided.

The algae will last about two or three weeks and then disappear.

Bass fishing in Beaver Creek has been very good the past week. Several reports of bass 14 or 15 inches have been received.

Elsewhere, the fishing has been good in some lakes, poor in others.

Mogadore Lake near Akron has not been producing well, but Mosquito Lake and Berlin Reservoir have been providing a good deal of sport.

Mosquito was an especially hot spot this past week for walleyes and crappies. The crappies being caught this year are very nice. Most are running in the 11 to 14 inch class.

Some large walleyes are being landed, but the majority are 14 to 15 inches.

Sherman Rice of Azalea Ave. and Charles Jobe of near Ohioview caught seven walleyes about two pounds apiece Monday at Mosquito. They said the fishermen were also bringing in strings of 50 to 90 crappies.

Sherman says they caught 15 to 20 smaller walleyes which they threw back.

Bass have started spawning. Some fishermen apparently are taking them from the nest. This is not illegal, but somehow it doesn't seem very sporting. What do you think? If you catch one off the nest, why not throw it back.

THE WHITE BASS and perch have started hitting in Lake Erie. My father received a telephone call Thursday from Middle Bass Island the white bass run was on. It will last for about two weeks.

This is great fun. If you have an opportunity to get to Lake Erie within the next week or so, do so.

THE STOCKING of 1,600 northern pike fingerlings was completed this week at Guilford Lake.

Some fair size northerns were caught this spring at Guilford.

Let's hope the pike survive. Maybe they can help clean out some of the thousands of shad that inhabit the waters.

THE PENNSYLVANIA PISTOL CHAMPIONSHIPS are being held today and Sunday at the Beaver Valley Rifle & Pistol Club range adjacent Beaver County's Brady's Run Park.

The matches, featuring individuals and teams from several states, are open to the public. The park area is located off Route 51 near Beaver Falls.

FLY FISHERMEN should have a very good weekend in West Virginia, according to the Department of Natural Resources.

Fly fishermen have been enjoying more success on most trout streams than those using natural bait. All the streams and lakes are reported clear and normal except the Little Kanawha and Hughes Rivers, which are milky, but otherwise in good shape.

Len Wood of Los Angeles, Calif., and his unusual trailer — a 20th Century tree house on wheels — made an unscheduled stop 85 miles west of Montreal, Canada, for repairs Friday. The trailer, a whole California redwood pine log, nine feet in diameter and over 1,000 years old, has traveled 63,000 miles in the U.S. in the past five years.

Area Men In Vietnam Conflict

By VONNIE McCLURE

Some of the gruesome scenes of the fighting in Vietnam have been described in letters written by Marine Pfc. Charles Holben of Industry R.D. 2.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Holben, Pfc. Holben in his letters has caught some of the atmosphere of tension and death in the recent "Operation Hickory."

Charlie joined the Marines Oct. 21, 1966, while a student at Western Beaver High School. He plans to finish high school training while in the Marines.

Following training as a radio technician at Camp Pendleton, Calif., Charlie, 19, arrived in Viet Nam in late April.

Writing home on May 1, he said, "I am doing good. It is up to 100-110-degrees every day here. It will get hotter in June and July when it will be 110 - 130-degrees. I'm not used to the heat yet."

In this letter he asked his mother to send him some writing paper and envelopes since they are hard to get on the field. He asked her to write as often as possible since mail is flown in to the boys by helicopter every day.

HE WROTE, "Dad, I don't see how you can take all that heat down at the mill. (Charlie's father has worked in the axle mill at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel

PFC. CHARLES HOLBEN

Co. for 23 years.) When we were making our bunker and filling sand bags all day, it almost killed me. Did I get hot. . . . .and sick, too.."

Charlie laid the pen aside for a while to go put up more barbed wire around the bunkers. Resuming, he remarked, "Is it hot! It looks like I took a shower with my clothes on. We've been here a little over a week and I haven't had a shower or shaved in two weeks. So you know what I look like, and smell like. It is starting to rain out now, so it will cool off now."

He wrote "Time seems to go fast here. You work all day and have to stand watch in the bunker four hours every night. So we don't have much time to think of home."

On May 13, he wrote home again: "We just got back from the field again. I am still sick and haven't eaten for nearly two days. We were out over a day with F Company, 3rd Marine Division.

"We were in the mountains and thick jungles. We got hit from the front. We kept moving forward then we got hit from our right flank. Mom, that was the first time I had to use my rifle. I killed two Cong. Over half of F Company was killed or wounded.

"To see our own men falling all around us, I was so scared. We are back in the rear now and will be here a while. You try to go to sleep at night and you relive it over and over; you wake up in a cold sweat, shaking and scared. Well, it's all over now, Mom; I'll never tell you when I am going on an operation 'till I get back. So how is the weather?"

Later, he wrote, "Well, Mom, one month down, just 365 days to go. Try not to worry too much. Like you say, I'm in the Lord's hands now; He will watch over me. I hope to hear from you real soon. I love you both very much."

A LETTER written home on May 27 reads: "I know it's hard on you with me being here, but God is watching over us. I hope you can read this; I am writing on toilet tissue. I got a letter from Dad; I know it hurts him that I'm here because he knows what war is like."

"Mom, if you have time, will you make me some cookies — chocolate chip and some squares or something—and send them to me once a month. We don't get much stuff like that here. I still haven't had that shower and shave yet. So you can imagine what I look like. I'll be able to get a shower as soon as we get back June 1 or 2."

"It's still between 100 and 115 degrees here every day. Is it ever hard to walk in heat like that with all my gear on. I am one of the smallest guys and I carry about 30 pounds more than they do with my radio. They call me "Shorty." But they are a bunch of good guys."

CHARLIE mentioned he had heard from his brother, Don Holben, a Spec. 4 with the Army in Germany where he drives a jeep. Don had sent him some pictures. He will leave Germany in September and be discharged.

In a letter mailed May 27 to his buddy, Allan Haggerty of Hillcrest Manor, Charlie stated, "I'm writing you from the field. We have been out here for ten days now on 'Operation Hickory.' The newspapermen said we made headlines.

THE FIRST day we moved about 3,000 meters. Everything went fine. The second day we left at daybreak and moved until 2:30 p.m. Then we got hit. We fought until dark and dug in for the night. We didn't lose too many men that day.

The third day we made it about 100 yards and they stopped us. God, we fought all that day. The planes bombed all over out in front of us for a couple of hours. About 1 p.m. they started to mortar us. A lot of men got hurt.

"That went on all day—just fighting. We lost a lot of men. In the first two days we lost over 150 men either dead or wounded. They bombed all night the third night. On the fourth day we started moving. We fought hard for about two hours in the morning. But the rest of the day we had them on the run. In those first four days they said we lost over 300 men dead or wounded.

Al borrowed $1,000 from Bud and gave him his negotiable promissory note secured by a mortgage on his (Al's) house. The note was payable two years from date.

At the end of one year, Al's fortunes had improved, and he found himself in a position to pay off the note. Bud accepted the $1,000, plus interest, when it was tendered to him, and gave Al a validly executed release of mortgage.

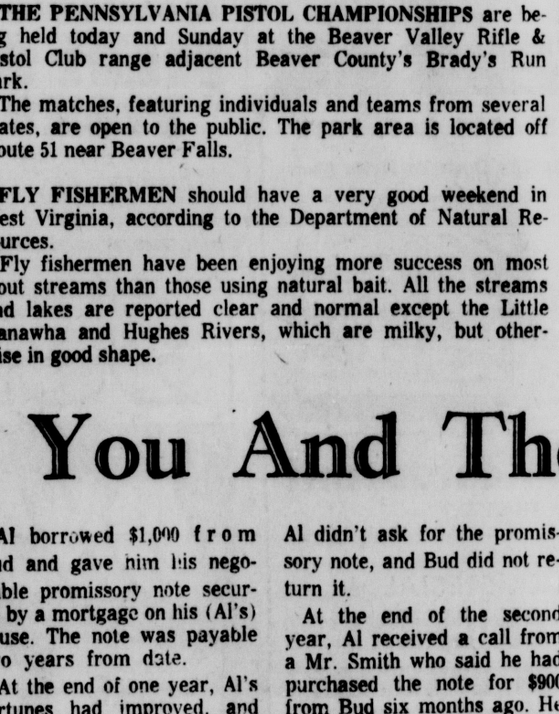

Al didn't ask for the promissory note, and Bud did not return it.

At the end of the second year, Al received a call from a Mr. Smith who said he had purchased the note for $900 from Bud six months ago. He now demanded payment. When told by Al that the note had been paid, Mr. Smith denied any knowledge of it and showed that he was an innocent purchaser for value.

Would Al have to pay again? The answer is yes.

The promissory note was a negotiable instrument. The rule is that, if such an instrument is sold or transferred before payment is due, to an innocent purchaser for value, the purchaser takes the instrument free of the defenses which the maker of the note would have against the payee. Therefore, the defense of payment would avail Al nothing in this instance.

A maker of a promissory note should never pay off a note, whether it is an unsecured obligation or a mortgage indebtedness, without getting his note back at the time of the payment.

Outdoor Notes

By HARRY STEWART
Review Staff Member

IF THE ROAD kill is any indication of the deer population in any given area — and it usually is — the herds in Columbiana County are increasing. Eight have been claimed on the highways in the past two weeks.

This is one of the highest road kills ever registered in this county in a two-week period. It may be the record.

Two of the deer were bucks and the others does. One of the does was ready to deliver her young. When cut open she was found to be carrying twin fawns. It was too late to save them.

Females are now dropping their fawns. When they begin labor, they usually separate from the herds and the bucks to select a place for the birth.

Motorists should use extreme caution when traveling along secondary roads as well as the main highways. Deer seem to freeze at times or become confused by the glare of auto headlights in their eyes.

Hitting a deer can cause heavy damage to your car. It may even cause you to lose control of the vehicle and have a more serious mishap.

PENNSYLVANIA'S DEER population has grown to the extent the Game Commission has extended some of the hunting seasons and directed the sale of additional antlerless licenses.

A three-day antlerless season will be held this year for the first time since 1959. The dates will be Dec. 11, 12, and 16. The Saturday date of Dec. 11 was selected as the final day of antlerless season so more hunters will have an opportunity to participate.

Aside from this, the commission also included the "bad weather" clause. In case of inclement weather additional days of hunting may be designated. It will depend on the earlier harvest of the whitetails.

Beaver County's allocation of antlerless licenses will be 1,450.

The statewide total will be 445,400, an increase of 64,500 over last year's 380,900, the previous record.

Glenn L. Bowers, commission executive director, said "We simply must harvest more deer. If the hunters don't then starvation will take a far heavier toll."

The population has exceeded the natural food supply. Despite the heavy harvest last year, there was a large carryover of deer because of the mild winter, and another big fawn crop is being produced now.

Bear season will be Nov. 20-25. The archery season for deer will open statewide Sept. 30. The regular gun season for antlered deer will be Nov. 27 to Dec. 9.

Squirrel and ruffed grouse season will be Oct. 14 through Nov. 25 and Dec. 26 to Jan. 6, 1968.

Turkey season is Oct. 28 to Nov. 18. Rabbit season is Oct. 28 through Nov. 25 and Dec. 26 to Jan. 6, 1968.

Pheasant and quail seasons coincide with the first part of rabbit season.

Basically, all bag limits remain the same as last year.

On the first day of small game season—Oct. 28—the opening hour will be 9 a.m., DST. Shooting hours for other days and seasons, including migratory birds, will be announced later.

WHAT WITH MORE and more people moving to the urban areas, the animals must have decided to move into town.

Ernest Menough of 514 College St. discovered a large opposum perched on the fence in his back yard early Sunday morning.

Tippy, a pet dog, started raising a fuss when he was left out the rear door. Menough investigated and found the dog had chased the possum up the fence where it remained perched.

Menough decide to try out a new camera and took three pictures. He says even the flash did not disturb the animal.

At Echo Dell Trailer Court near Beaver Creek State Park there is a raccoon that has become so tame that it visits homes there in the evenings.

The coon almost invariably goes to the trailer of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Drane. They allow it inside where it sits up to eat food.

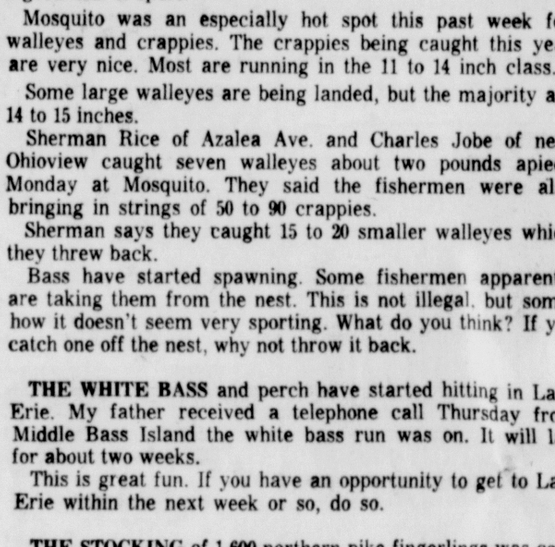

It also visits their neighbors and some even claim it will sit in the chairs on the porch.

After it is tired of visiting, the coon returns to the nearby woods.

A FISHING TRIP for John and Jane Kwasnik of 409 Almont St. to Arkansas proved very fruitful.

Jane landed a 9-pound, 5-ounce walleye on the trip. She caught it June 1 while fishing from Cornell's Resort, Promise Land Area at Mountain Home, Ark. This is a Bull Shoals Lake.

In addition to the large walleye, they caught several other fish, including 50 white bass in the 2 to 4 pound class, their limit on small mouth bass each day and rainbow trout up to 6 pounds.

LAKES AND STREAMS in the entire area are in excellent shape for fishing.

The bad feature is the "green moss" that seems to clog Beaver Creek and some lakes at this time of year. This is an annual occurence and the algae condition cannot be avoided.

The algae will last about two or three weeks and then disappear.

Bass fishing in Beaver Creek has been very good the past week. Several reports of bass 14 or 15 inches have been received.

Elsewhere, the fishing has been good in some lakes, poor in others.

Mogadore Lake near Akron has not been producing well, but Mosquito Lake and Berlin Reservoir have been providing a good deal of sport.

Mosquito was an especially hot spot this past week for walleyes and crappies. The crappies being caught this year are very nice. Most are running in the 11 to 14 inch class.

Some large walleyes are being landed, but the majority are 14 to 15 inches.

Sherman Rice of Azalea Ave. and Charles Jobe of near Ohioview caught seven walleyes about two pounds apiece Monday at Mosquito. They said the fishermen were also bringing in strings of 50 to 90 crappies.

Sherman says they caught 15 to 20 smaller walleyes which they threw back.

Bass have started spawning. Some fishermen apparently are taking them from the nest. This is not illegal, but somehow it doesn't seem very sporting. What do you think? If you catch one off the nest, why not throw it back.

THE WHITE BASS and perch have started hitting in Lake Erie. My father received a telephone call Thursday from Middle Bass Island the white bass run was on. It will last for about two weeks.

This is great fun. If you have an opportunity to get to Lake Erie within the next week or so, do so.

THE STOCKING of 1,600 northern pike fingerlings was completed this week at Guilford Lake.

Some fair size northerns were caught this spring at Guilford.

Let's hope the pike survive. Maybe they can help clean out some of the thousands of shad that inhabit the waters.

THE PENNSYLVANIA PISTOL CHAMPIONSHIPS are being held today and Sunday at the Beaver Valley Rifle & Pistol Club range adjacent Beaver County's Brady's Run Park.

The matches, featuring individuals and teams from several states, are open to the public. The park area is located off Route 51 near Beaver Falls.

FLY FISHERMEN should have a very good weekend in West Virginia, according to the Department of Natural Resources.

Fly fishermen have been enjoying more success on most trout streams than those using natural bait. All the streams and lakes are reported clear and normal except the Little Kanawha and Hughes Rivers, which are milky, but otherwise in good shape.

Len Wood of Los Angeles, Calif., and his unusual trailer — a 20th Century tree house on wheels — made an unscheduled stop 85 miles west of Montreal, Canada, for repairs Friday. The trailer, a whole California redwood pine log, nine feet in diameter and over 1,000 years old, has traveled 63,000 miles in the U.S. in the past five years.

Area Men In Vietnam Conflict

By VONNIE McCLURE

Some of the gruesome scenes of the fighting in Vietnam have been described in letters written by Marine Pfc. Charles Holben of Industry R.D. 2.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Holben, Pfc. Holben in his letters has caught some of the atmosphere of tension and death in the recent "Operation Hickory."

Charlie joined the Marines Oct. 21, 1966, while a student at Western Beaver High School. He plans to finish high school training while in the Marines.

Following training as a radio technician at Camp Pendleton, Calif., Charlie, 19, arrived in Viet Nam in late April.

Writing home on May 1, he said, "I am doing good. It is up to 100-110-degrees every day here. It will get hotter in June and July when it will be 110 - 130-degrees. I'm not used to the heat yet."

In this letter he asked his mother to send him some writing paper and envelopes since they are hard to get on the field. He asked her to write as often as possible since mail is flown in to the boys by helicopter every day.

HE WROTE, "Dad, I don't see how you can take all that heat down at the mill. (Charlie's father has worked in the axle mill at the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel

PFC. CHARLES HOLBEN

Co. for 23 years.) When we were making our bunker and filling sand bags all day, it almost killed me. Did I get hot. . . . .and sick, too.."

Charlie laid the pen aside for a while to go put up more barbed wire around the bunkers. Resuming, he remarked, "Is it hot! It looks like I took a shower with my clothes on. We've been here a little over a week and I haven't had a shower or shaved in two weeks. So you know what I look like, and smell like. It is starting to rain out now, so it will cool off now."

He wrote "Time seems to go fast here. You work all day and have to stand watch in the bunker four hours every night. So we don't have much time to think of home."

On May 13, he wrote home again: "We just got back from the field again. I am still sick and haven't eaten for nearly two days. We were out over a day with F Company, 3rd Marine Division.

"We were in the mountains and thick jungles. We got hit from the front. We kept moving forward then we got hit from our right flank. Mom, that was the first time I had to use my rifle. I killed two Cong. Over half of F Company was killed or wounded.

"To see our own men falling all around us, I was so scared. We are back in the rear now and will be here a while. You try to go to sleep at night and you relive it over and over; you wake up in a cold sweat, shaking and scared. Well, it's all over now, Mom; I'll never tell you when I am going on an operation 'till I get back. So how is the weather?"

Later, he wrote, "Well, Mom, one month down, just 365 days to go. Try not to worry too much. Like you say, I'm in the Lord's hands now; He will watch over me. I hope to hear from you real soon. I love you both very much."

A LETTER written home on May 27 reads: "I know it's hard on you with me being here, but God is watching over us. I hope you can read this; I am writing on toilet tissue. I got a letter from Dad; I know it hurts him that I'm here because he knows what war is like."

"Mom, if you have time, will you make me some cookies — chocolate chip and some squares or something— and send them to me once a month. We don't get much stuff like that here. I still haven't had that shower and shave yet. So you can imagine what I look like. I'll be able to get a shower as soon as we get back June 1 or 2."

"It's still between 100 and 115 degrees here every day. Is it ever hard to walk in heat like that with all my gear on. I am one of the smallest guys and I carry about 30 pounds more than they do with my radio. They call me "Shorty." But they are a bunch of good guys."

CHARLIE mentioned he had heard from his brother, Don Holben, a Spec. 4 with the Army in Germany where he drives a jeep. Don had sent him some pictures. He will leave Germany in September and be discharged.

In a letter mailed May 27 to his buddy, Allan Haggerty of Hillcrest Manor, Charlie stated, "I'm writing you from the field. We have been out here for ten days now on 'Operation Hickory.' The newspapermen said we made headlines.

THE FIRST day we moved about 3,000 meters. Everything went fine. The second day we left at daybreak and moved until 2:30 p.m. Then we got hit. We fought until dark and dug in for the night. We didn't lose too many men that day.

The third day we made it about 100 yards and they stopped us. God, we fought all that day. The planes bombed all over out in front of us for a couple of hours. About 1 p.m. they started to mortar us. A lot of men got hurt.

"That went on all day—just fighting. We lost a lot of men. In the first two days we lost over 150 men either dead or wounded. They bombed all night the third night. On the fourth day we started moving. We fought hard for about two hours in the morning. But the rest of the day we had them on the run. In those first four days they said we lost over 300 men dead or wounded.

"God, Al, I helped carry men out with arms shot off and men with both legs shot off.

"The last six days have not been too bad. We are on our way back now and are right at the DMZ. If we keep going the way we are now, we will be back in five or six days by June 1."

Charlie expects to return to the States in May, 1968.

Then a father and his two sons hope to take some more hunting and fishing trips to Roulette, Pa.

Man Given Sentence At End Of Probation

LISBON — Judge Joel H. Sharp terminated probation granted a Salem area man in 1964 and sentenced him Thursday to 1 to 7 years in the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield.

The court said evidence introduced at a hearing May 4 proved that Roy F. Manypenny, 24, of Salem R.D. 4, has been associating with young boys in violation of the second condition of his probation.

Manypenny was given probation three years ago June 15 after pleading guilty to stealing a $1,600 tractor July 13, 1963, from the Electric Furnace Co. in Salem.

Indians Win Big One From 'Good Guys'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Seminole Indians, losers in a bloody battle more than a century ago that ended with their eviction from their Florida homeland, have scored what could be a very profitable victory in court.

A U.S. Claims Court ruled Friday the Seminoles have established their legal ownership of almost all of Florida.

The court said the Indians must be paid for 32 million acres—a decision that could cost the U.S. government about $40 million. The court's unanimous decision still could be appealed to the Supreme Court.

When the United States got Florida from Spain in 1821, the Seminoles hunted and fished over most the land. They were forced to occupy a four-million-acre reservation two years later and awarded $152,500 for the 28 million acres they lost.

The Indians rebelled when the government later tried to move them to an Oklahoma reservation. Joined by runaway Negro slaves, they battled federal troops for seven years, killing 1,500 U.S. soldiers.

No treaty ever was signed. But 3,824 Seminoles and Negroes finally were sent to Oklahoma while other Indians fled into the Florida Everglades. An estimated 1,300 Seminoles now live there.

The government argued the Indians originally owned only a small part of Florida. But the Claims Court said actual possession need not be proved to show they had rightful title to most of Florida.

Bucs Rout Phils With 23 Hits

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates are closed mouthed about their closed door meeting Wednesday, but since then they've been making plenty of noise at bat and on the mound.

It rose to a crescendo Friday night when the revived Pirates exploded for 23 hits as they punished Philadelphia 16-1 for their second straight victory since the locker room get-together.

They were not the only ones with plenty to say at bat Friday night. The National League leading Cincinnati Reds, a noisy bunch all season, hammered Houston 10-7 with six runs in the seventh inning.

On a more quiet note, St. Louis edged Los Angeles 3-2, Atlanta beat San Francisco 5-3 and the Chicago Cubs slipped by the New York Mets 6-5.

In the American League, Boston outslugged Washington 8-7, year, and Boog Powell had a three-run shot as Baltimore jolted four Minnesota pitchers for 14 hits.

In other American League action, Kansas City shut out Cleveland twice, 2-0 and 6-0; Boston nipped Washington 8-7, New York pushed a run across in the 10th inning to edge Chicago 2-1 and California blanked Detroit 4-0.

Ermer was named manager of the floundering Twins Friday afternoon after President Cal Griffith dismissed Sam Mele. He flew in from Denver, where he had managed the Twins' Pacific Coast League team for the last 2½ years, and made it in time for Friday night's game.

He had hardly found a spot for himself in the Minnesota dugout before the Orioles hopped on Dean Chance for three unearned runs in the first inning.

Robinson doubled home a run in the fifth and then put the game out of reach with his three-run homer in the sixth. Powell's three-run shot in the eighth climaxed the Orioles' assault.

Moe Drabowsky, who struck out Bob Allison with the bases loaded, choking off a Twins' threat in the fifth, worked 4 2-3 innings of scoreless relief for his fifth straight victory. Chance, 9-3, was the loser.

Chuck Dobson and Jim (Catfish) Hunter, hung the double shutout on the Indians for Kansas City.

Dobson outduelled Steve Hargan, who allowed only two hits, in the opener. Hargan had pitched six hitless innings before Ramon Webster's leadoff triple broke the spell in the seventh. Two outs later, Jim Gosger homered, accounting for both Kansas City runs.

The A's routed Sam McDowell with a six-run first inning in the nightcap and Hunter breezed with a six-hitter. The big blow for Kansas City was rookie Dave Duncan's three-run homer in his first major league appearance at bat this season.

Carl Yastrzemski and Joe Foy tagged two homers apiece for the Red Sox, who overcame an early 6-2 Washington lead.

John Wyatt relieved winner Jose Santiago with the tying run at third and none out in the ninth and pitched out of the jam, preserving the victory.

Reggie Smith also homered for Boston and Frank Howard connected for the Senators.

Horace Clarke singled Steve Whitaker across with the Yankees' winning run in the 10th inning against Chicago. Whitaker had singled and moved to second when pinch hitter Dick Howser was hit by a pitch.

Elston Howard homered for the Yankees in the seventh and Al Downing preserved the one-run edge until the ninth when the White Sox scored the tying run on Tom McCraw's double and Ken Berry's single.

Reds Rally To Top Astros

the New York Yankees tripped the Chicago White Sox 2-1 in 10 innings, Baltimore clobbered Minnesota 11-2, Kansas City blanked Cleveland 2-0 and 6-0, and Detroit topped California 4-0.

The now roaring Pirates, the best hitting team in the league in 1966, were a meek bunch until their players-only meeting. They had lost five of seven games, stood only three games over .500 and had fallen to fourth place after being picked by many to win the pennant.

With Manager Harry Walker and the coaching staff omitted, the Pirates, who held a similar caucus two years ago and a few more last season, presumably met to talk over their problems and bring their gripes into the open.

The Pirates managed eight hits and three runs that night and Tommie Sisk hurled a shutout at the Mets, but the real noise was heard Friday night.

Every starter except pitcher Billy O'Dell, who scattered eight hits for his fifth victory in seven decisions, had at least two hits. Manny Mota and Gene Alley each had four.

Bill Mazeroski drove in four runs with two singles and a sacrifice fly and Willie Stargell, Alley and Jerry May accounted for three each as the Pirates slugged 20 singles, one double and two triples.

The Reds did not get as many hits—only 14—but three of them were homers by Pete Rose, Deron Johnson and Don Pavletich for six runs in the seventh inning that overcame a 7-4 deficit.

Rose's blast came with two on and tied the score. After Tony Perez doubled, Johnson and Pavletich spoke up.

Pavletich had doubled home two earlier runs and Rose and Perez singled in the others.

Pitcher Dick Hughes hushed Los Angeles with a run-scoring single in the seventh inning that broke a 2-2 deadlock. The lanky right-hander also scattered seven hits before leaving in the ninth.

Orlando Cepeda had an inside-the-park homer for one Cardinal run.

Joe Torre snapped a 1-1 tie with a run-scoring single that put Atlanta ahead in the sixth inning and Dennis Menke followed with a clinching homer off loser Mike McCormick.

Ken Johnson yielded only solo homers by Ollie Brown, Jack Hiatt and Jim Hart in 8 2-3 innings.

Ernie Banks did most of the talking for the Cubs. He opened the eighth inning with a double that led to two unearned runs and a 5-5 tie and then he singled home the winning run on a 3-2 count with the bases loaded and one out in the ninth. The Mets had walked Lee Thomas to get to Banks the final time.

Ed Charles and Tommie Davis homered earlier for the Mets and Randy Hundley hit one for the Cubs.

In Surprise Move

Ermer Takes Over Twins; Mele Fired

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Calvin Griffith dumped Sam Mele as manager of his Minnesota Twins Friday and thrust on the shoulders of veteran minor league manager Cal Ermer the task of rallying the sputtering American League club for a run at the pennant.

"I still think this team can win the pennant," Griffith said. "I'm not going to criticize Mele; he's done a great job. But I think it was time for a change, and I think new leadership can provide the spark to get us going."

Although the move caught Twins players and fans alike by surprise, Griffith said he had been considering a change since mid-season last year. And the Griffith organization had eyed Ermer as managerial timber for more than 20 years.

"At one time last year, I had certain things on my mind," Griffith said. "Then the club turned around and started winning. I think there has been an accumulation of things. There were things that should have been done that weren't done."

SAM MELE
Replaced At Minnesota.

Mele took his ouster calmly, and expressed no bitterness. "Even though I've been fired, I have nothing but respect and admiration for Calvin," he said. "I've always been treated fairly by him."

The deposed manager said he has no plans for the rest of the season.

Mele said his six-year record with the Twins "speaks for itself." Under Mele, who took over the Twins' field reins on June 23, 1961, when Griffith fired Cookie Lavagetto, Minnesota had a 522-431 record for a winning percentage of .548. Mele's Twins won the A.L. pennant in 1965, finished second in 1962 and 1966 and third in 1963.

Mele was American League Manager of the Year in 1965.

Ermer, 43, who first served as a player-manager for the Griffith organization in 1947 at Charlotte, N.C., when he was 22 years old, was called up from Minnesota's Triple-A farm team at Denver in the Pacific Coast Leaue. He was starting his 15th season this year as a minor league manager.

"It is indeed a great challenge," Ermer said before donning a uniform 20 minutes before assuming command for the Twins-Baltimore game Friday night.

He then watched the Orioles bomb four Twins pitchers for 14 hits in an 11-2 drubbing.

The Baltimore Orioles wasted no time teaching Cal Ermer the facts of American League life.

Ermer, the new manager of the Minnesota Twins, climbed into a uniform only 20 minutes before the game time Friday night and then watched the Twins absorb an 11-2 loss at the hands of the Orioles.

Aaron Ties Goalby For Buick Lead

GRAND BLANC, Mich. (AP) — Long driving Bob Goalby, his disposition as changeable as the thunderstorms which swirled over Warwick Hills Golf Club Friday, shared the halfway lead in the $100,000 Buick Open with Tommy Aaron.

The chunky Palm Beach, Calif. pro showed flashes of his old temper Friday as he fired a 73—on over par—for a 142 total that left him in a tie with Aaron whose hot putter kept him in contention for the lead.

Goalby led the first round with a three-under-par 69 over Warwick Hills, 7,126 yards. He was intent on building that lead as he went out in a two-under-par 34 Friday.

Then disaster struck. His short game fell to pieces, and soon he was arguing with the fans and disciplining his caddy as well.

A one-hour delay caused by thunderstorms and subsequent electrical storms failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the nearly 12,000 spectators who tramped over the soggy fairways.

Youngster Gains Draw With Floyd Patterson

By FRANK O'REILLY

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Floyd Patterson, the former heavyweight boxing champion who is hoping to regain the title, was sidetracked Friday night when he salvaged only a draw against young Jerry Quarry.

Patterson, a soft-spoken fighter who held the title twice, said after the 10-round bout he wants a rematch and Quarry agreed.

Patterson fought back from two second-round knockdowns and most ringside observers thought the rally was enough to win. But the crowd, heavily partisan for the 22-year-old Quarry, who lives in suburban Bellflower, roundly booed the verdict. Only the fighters seemed willing to accept the decision.

"No one really knows if he won," said Patterson in his characteristically honest fashion. "The officials can tell better than the fighter.

"I'm just happy that it was a good show, that the fans got their money's worth and that no one got hurt."

Referee John Thomas scored the bout 5-5 and Judge Dick Young, 6-6, making the decision a draw under California rules. Judge George Latka had Quarry the winner, 7-6. The Associated Press picked Patterson, 8-5.

Parson's goal unleashed a 12-hit attack to defeat the Medics, 6-3. Samples had a three-for-three night to pace the winners and also was the winning pitcher scattering five hits. Lockhart had two hits for the Medics and Williams was the losing hurler.

Bucs Rout Phils With 23 Hits

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates are closed mouthed about their closed door meeting Wednesday, but since then they've been making plenty of noise at bat and on the mound.

It rose to a crescendo Friday night when the revived Pirates exploded for 23 hits as they punished Philadelphia 16-1 for their second straight victory since the locker room get-together.

They were not the only ones with plenty to say at bat Friday night. The National League leading Cincinnati Reds, a noisy bunch all season, hammered Houston 10-7 with six runs in the seventh inning.

On a more quiet note, St. Louis edged Los Angeles 3-2, Atlanta beat San Francisco 5-3 and the Chicago Cubs slipped by the New York Mets 6-5.

In the American League, Boston outslugged Washington 8-7, the New York Yankees tripped the Chicago White Sox 2-1 in 10 innings, Baltimore clobbered Minnesota 11-2, Kansas City blanked Cleveland 2-0 and 6-0, and Detroit topped California 4-0.

The now roaring Pirates, the best hitting team in the league in 1966, were a meek bunch until their players-only meeting. They had lost five of seven games, stood only three games over .500 and had fallen to fourth place after being picked by many to win the pennant.

With Manager Harry Walker and the coaching staff omitted, the Pirates, who held a similar caucus two years ago and a few more last season, presumably met to talk over their problems and bring their gripes into the open.

The Pirates managed eight hits and three runs that night and Tommie Sisk hurled a shutout at the Mets, but the real noise was heard Friday night.

Every starter except pitcher Billy O'Dell, who scattered eight hits for his fifth victory in seven decisions, had at least two hits. Manny Mota and Gene Alley each had four.

Bill Mazeroski drove in four runs with two singles and a sacrifice fly and Willie Stargell, Alley and Jerry May accounted for three each as the Pirates slugged 20 singles, one double and two triples.

The Reds did not get as many hits—only 14—but three of them were homers by Pete Rose, Deron Johnson and Don Pavletich for six runs in the seventh inning that overcame a 7-4 deficit.

Rose's blast came with two on and tied the score. After Tony Perez doubled, Johnson and Pavletich spoke up.

Pavletich had doubled home two earlier runs and Rose and Perez singled in the others.

Pitcher Dick Hughes hushed Los Angeles with a run-scoring single in the seventh inning that broke a 2-2 deadlock. The lanky right-hander also scattered seven hits before leaving in the ninth.

Orlando Cepeda had an inside-the-park homer for one Cardinal run.

Joe Torre snapped a 1-1 tie with a run-scoring single that put Atlanta ahead in the sixth inning and Dennis Menke followed with a clinching homer off loser Mike McCormick.

Ken Johnson yielded only solo homers by Ollie Brown, Jack Hiatt and Jim Hart in 8 2-3 innings.

Ernie Banks did most of the talking for the Cubs. He opened the eighth inning with a double that led to two unearned runs and a 5-5 tie and then he singled home the winning run on a 3-2 count with the bases loaded and one out in the ninth. The Mets had walked Lee Thomas to get to Banks the final time.

Ed Charles and Tommie Davis homered earlier for the Mets and Randy Hundley hit one for the Cubs.

In Surprise Move

Ermer Takes Over Twins; Mele Fired

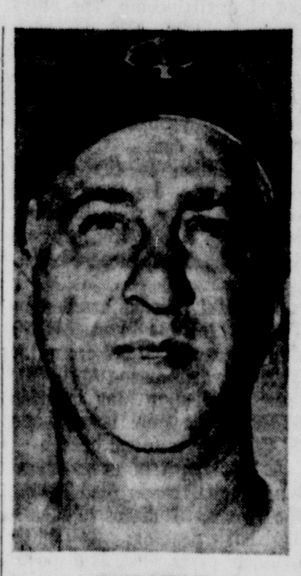

By LEW FERGUSON
Asosicated Press Sports Writer

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Calvin Griffith dumped Sam Mele as manager of his Minnesota Twins Friday and thrust on the shoulders of veteran minor league manager Cal Ermer the task of rallying the sputtering American League club for a run at the pennant.

"I still think this team can win the pennant," Griffith said. "I'm not going to criticize Mele; he's done a great job. But I think it was time for a change, and I think new leadership can provide the spark to get us going."

Although the move caught Twins players and fans alike by surprise, Griffith said he had been considering a change since mid-season last year. And the Griffith organization had eyed Ermer as managerial timber for more than 20 years.

"At one time last year, I had certain things on my mind," Griffith said. "Then the club turned around and started winning. I think there has been an accumulation of things. There were things that should have been done that weren't done."

SAM MELE
Replaced At Minnesota.

Mele took his ouster calmly, and expressed no bitterness. "Even though I've been fired, I have nothing but respect and admiration for Calvin," he said. "I've always been treated fairly by him."

The deposed manager said he has no plans for the rest of the season.

Mele said his six-year record with the Twins "speaks for itself." Under Mele, who took over the Twins' field reins on June 23, 1961, when Griffith fired Cookie Lavagetto, Minnesota had a 522-431 record for a winning percentage of .548. Mele's Twins won the A.L. pennant in 1965, finished second in 1962 and 1966 and third in 1963.

Mele was American League Manager of the Year in 1965.

Ermer, 43, who first served as a player-manager for the Griffith organization in 1947 at Charlotte, N.C., when he was 22 years old, was called up from Minnesota's Triple-A farm team at Denver in the Pacific Coast Leaue. He was starting his 15th season this year as a minor league manager.

"It is indeed a great challenge," Ermer said before donning a uniform 20 minutes before assuming command for the Twins-Baltimore game Friday night.

He then watched the Orioles bomb four Twins pitchers for 14 hits in an 11-2 drubbing.

Orioles Spoil Ermer's Debut, 11-2

KC Blanks Indians In Both Games

By The Associated Press

The Baltimore Orioles wasted no time teaching Cal Ermer the facts of American League life.

Ermer, the new manager of the Minnesota Twins, climbed into a uniform only 20 minutes before the game time Friday night and then watched the Twins absorb an 11-2 loss at the hands of the Orioles.

Frank Robinson slammed a three-run homer, his 17th of the year, and Boog Powell had a three-run shot as Baltimore jolted four Minnesota pitchers for 14 hits.

In other American League action, Kansas City shut out Cleveland twice, 2-0 and 6-0; Boston nipped Washington 8-7, New York pushed a run across in the 10th inning to edge Chicago 2-1 and California blanked Detroit 4-0.

Ermer was named manager of the floundering Twins Friday afternoon after President Cal Griffith dismissed Sam Mele. He flew in from Denver, where he had managed the Twins' Pacific Coast League team for the last 2½ years, and made it in time for Friday night's game.

He had hardly found a spot for himself in the Minnesota dugout before the Orioles hopped on Dean Chance for three unearned runs in the first inning.

Robinson doubled home a run in the fifth and then put the game out of reach with his three-run homer in the sixth. Powell's three-run shot in the eighth climaxed the Orioles' assault.

Moe Drabowsky, who struck out Bob Allison with the bases loaded, choking off a Twins' threat in the fifth, worked 4 2-3 innings of scoreless relief for his fifth straight victory. Chance, 9-3, was the loser.

Chuck Dobson and Jim (Catfish) Hunter, hung the double shutout on the Indians for Kansas City.

Dobson outduelled Steve Hargan, who allowed only two hits, in the opener. Hargan had pitched six hitless innings before Ramon Webster's leadoff triple broke the spell in the seventh. Two outs later, Jim Gosger homered, accounting for both Kansas City runs.

The A's routed Sam McDowell with a six-run first inning in the nightcap and Hunter breezed with a six-hitter. The big blow for Kansas City was rookie Dave Duncan's three-run homer in his first major league appearance at bat this season.

Carl Yastrzemski and Joe Foy tagged two homers apiece for the Red Sox, who overcame an early 6-2 Washington lead.

John Wyatt relieved winner Jose Santiago with the tying run at third and none out in the ninth and pitched out of the jam, preserving the victory.

Reggie Smith also homered for Boston and Frank Howard connected for the Senators.

Horace Clarke singled Steve Whitaker across with the Yankees' winning run in the 10th inning against Chicago. Whitaker had singled and moved to second when pinch hitter Dick Howser was hit by a pitch.

Elston Howard homered for the Yankees in the seventh and Al Downing preserved the one-run edge until the ninth when the White Sox scored the tying run on Tom McCraw's double and Ken Berry's single.

55 To Start In LeMans Race Today

LE MANS, France (AP) — "Le Mans is a monster which devours men and machines," says Ferrari racing director Franco Lini.

Less poetic in his description of the 24-hour speed and endurance test is Ford driver Paul Hawkins of Australia.

"It's a tough nut," he declares.

Drivers, manufacturers and mechanics all seem to dislike the race.

The prize money—$16,000 for first place—is not the reason why 55 cars were to be poised on the starting line for start of today's race.

Should Ford win, the prize money would just about pay for the trouble the Detroit cars have been having with their windshields.

Lini calls Le Mans "The Summit."

A Ford spokesman says," Le Mans is like the mountain that you climb just because it's there."

The race is the most prestigious in the world for sports cars and prototypes. This is why Ford and Ferrari are willing to dispense so freely with their energy and money to win it.

Ford, the defending champion, and Ferrari, the beaten champion, each were to field a line-up of seven cars.

Chaparral, an American entry with an automatic transmission, is noted for speed but is thought to lack the staying power. There were two Chaparrals entered.

Ferrari, a 9-time winner at Le Mans, is here this year to avenge its 1966 defeat, when Ford finished 1-2-3 and stopped a streak of six consecutive Ferrari victories.

Ryun Eyes Mile After 1:47.2 In 880 Event

By PAT THOMPSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Jim Ryun, Kansas sophomore running whiz, comes back tonight to try for a mile championship after winning Friday the race in which he says he doesn't belong.

Ryun, mile world record holder, won the United States Track and Field Federation 880 in 1:47.2—his fastest of the year and the best ever run at University Stadium in Albuquerque.

"I still don't consider myself a half-miler," he said after the race in which he was boxed in the midst of 11 other runners until the final lap began.

"Somebody with a little more speed could ruin me."

The lanky Kansan set a USTFF meet record in 1:44.9 in 1966. The time, bettering the world record, was not approved internationally because the meet was not sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic Union. Sanction wasn't sought this year.

Ryun and steeplechasers Conrad Nightingale of Kansas State and Chris McCubbins of Oklahoma State spent part of this week participating in altitude tests prior to coming to 5,100-foot Albuquerque.

"There's quite a difference between 5,000 feet and 7,500 feet," said Ryun. "I'd like to get in a little more running at that altitude (7,500 feet) before the Olympics." The 1968 Olympics are at Mexico City, which has an altitude similar to Alamosa's.

Ryun said his chest burned a little after the 880 "but I felt real good."

He kicked with just less than 440 yards and won easily.

In addition to the mile finals, the three-mile, mile relay, 440 relay, 120 high hurdles, 440, 100, triple jump, pole vault, high jump and discus will be held tonight.

Matty Alou Helps Friend As Batting Average Slips

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Matty Alou, the 1966 National League batting champion, has run into a slump and there are rumors the Pittsburgh Pirates are looking for a trade. But the problem may be at home.

A friend"s home burned down two weeks ago, and big - hearted Matty took the whole family in until they could find another apartment.

The result: Ten people — four adults and six children — have been knocking around in Matty's little apartment for 10 days.

"It hasn't been bad," said modest Matty Friday. "We get along all right."

But his hitting has fallen off to .280 and Manny Mota started in his place the last two games.

It was through Mota that Alou met Rodolfo Periu, a refuge from Fidel Castro's Cuba. His apartment burned down two weeks ago and Periu, a stationary engineer at a hospital, couldn't afford a hotel while he looked for a new home.

"When I fled Cuba I lost everything," he said. "I've worked hard here and was starting to get ahead. Then to lose everything again. . ."

Alou heard about Periu's plight and offered the Perius his apartment. So did Mota, but his was even smaller.

"We know what being poor is," said Alou, a soft-spoken native of the Dominican Republic. "In moments like this, there is nothing like the help of a friend."

Alou moved without fanfare. Other members of the team didn't know, nor did manager Harry Walker.

Hole-In-One Bagged By Aliquippa Golfer

INDIANA, Pa. (AP) — Bob Knight of Aliquippa is probably wondering what you've got to do to win a golf tournament.

He sank a hole-in-one on the 127-yard No. 10 hole during the first round of the 13th Annual Pennsylvania Golf Tourney yesterday.

Ambridge's Jim Amato grabbed the first-round lead with a two-under-par 69.

Duke Phillips of Imperial is second with a first-day tally of 70, and defending champion Hugh Smith of Aliquippa is third with a 72.

A field of 164 is playing the 54-hold tourney on the 6,068-yard Indiana VFW Country Club course.

Grid Examination Set

An examination for football officials will be given Aug. 28 at the YMCA and anyone interested should contact Don Hancock by calling 386-4569. The test is under the supervison of the Columbiana County Football Officials Association.

Ryun Eyes Mile After 1:47.2 In 880 Event

By PAT THOMPSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Jim Ryun, Kansas sophomore running whiz, comes back tonight to try for a mile championship after winning Friday the race in which he says he doesn't belong.

Ryun, mile world record holder, won the United States Track and Field Federation 880 in 1:47.2—his fastest of the year and the best ever run at University Stadium in Albuquerque.

"I still don't consider myself a half-miler," he said after the race in which he was boxed in the midst of 11 other runners until the final lap began.

"Somebody with a little more speed could ruin me."

The lanky Kansan set a USTFF meet record in 1:44.9 in 1966. The time, bettering the world record, was not approved internationally because the meet was not sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic Union. Sanction wasn't sought this year.

Ryun and steeplechasers Conrad Nightingale of Kansas State and Chris McCubbins of Oklahoma State spent part of this week participating in altitude tests prior to coming to 5,100-foot Albuquerque.

"There's quite a difference between 5,000 feet and 7,500 feet," said Ryun. "I'd like to get in a little more running at that altitude (7,500 feet) before the Olympics." The 1968 Olympics are at Mexico City, which has an altitude similar to Alamosa's.

Ryun said his chest burned a little after the 880 "but I felt real good."

He kicked with just less than 440 yards and won easily.

In addition to the mile finals, the three-mile, mile relay, 440 relay, 120 high hurdles, 440, 100, triple jump, pole vault, high jump and discus will be held tonight.

Matty Alou Helps Friend As Batting Average Slips

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Matty Alou, the 1966 National League batting champion, has run into a slump and there are rumors the Pittsburgh Pirates are looking for a trade. But the problem may be at home.

A friend"s home burned down two weeks ago, and big - hearted Matty took the whole family in until they could find another apartment.

The result: Ten people — four adults and six children — have been knocking around in Matty's little apartment for 10 days.

"It hasn't been bad," said modest Matty Friday. "We get along all right."

But his hitting has fallen off to .280 and Manny Mota started in his place the last two games.

It was through Mota that Alou met Rodolfo Periu, a refuge from Fidel Castro's Cuba. His apartment burned down two weeks ago and Periu, a stationary engineer at a hospital, couldn't afford a hotel while he looked for a new home.

"When I fled Cuba I lost everything," he said. "I've worked hard here and was starting to get ahead. Then to lose everything again. . ."

Alou heard about Periu's plight and offered the Perius his apartment. So did Mota, but his was even smaller.

"We know what being poor is," said Alou, a soft-spoken native of the Dominican Republic. "In moments like this, there is nothing like the help of a friend."

Alou moved without fanfare. Other members of the team didn't know, nor did manager Harry Walker.

55 To Start In LeMans Race Today

LE MANS, France (AP) — "Le Mans is a monster which devours men and machines," says Ferrari racing director Franco Lini.

Less poetic in his description of the 24-hour speed and endurance test is Ford driver Paul Hawkins of Australia.

"It's a tough nut," he declares.

Drivers, manufacturers and mechanics all seem to dislike the race.

The prize money—$16,000 for first place—is not the reason why 55 cars were to be poised on the starting line for start of today's race.

Should Ford win, the prize money would just about pay for the trouble the Detroit cars have been having with their windshields.

Lini calls Le Mans "The Summit."

A Ford spokesman says," Le Mans is like the mountain that you climb just because it's there."

The race is the most prestigious in the world for sports cars and prototypes. This is why Ford and Ferrari are willing to dispense so freely with their energy and money to win it.

Ford, the defending champion, and Ferrari, the beaten champion, each were to field a line-up of seven cars.

Chaparral, an American entry with an automatic transmission, is noted for speed but is thought to lack the staying power. There were two Chaparrals entered.

Ferrari, a 9-time winner at Le Mans, is here this year to avenge its 1966 defeat, when Ford finished 1-2-3 and stopped a streak of six consecutive Ferrari victories.

Hole-In-One Bagged By Aliquippa Golfer

INDIANA, Pa. (AP) — Bob Knight of Aliquippa is probably wondering what you've got to do to win a golf tournament.

He sank a hole-in-one on the 127-yard No. 10 hole during the first round of the 13th Annual Pennsylvania Golf Tourney yesterday.

Ambridge's Jim Amato grabbed the first-round lead with a two-under-par 69.

Duke Phillips of Imperial is second with a first-day tally of 70, and defending champion Hugh Smith of Aliquippa is third with a 72.

A field of 164 is playing the 54-hold tourney on the 6,068-yard Indiana VFW Country Club course.

A Junior Editors Quiz About OLD IRONSIDES

QUESTION: Did "Old Ironsides" really have iron sides?

ANSWER: "Old Ironsides" is a nickname for one of the most famous ships in American history: the U.S. frigate Constitution. Frigates were fighting ships of the general shape shown by the silhouette above. Fast and light, they could carry from 30 to 50 guns and were well able to represent the dignity and importance of the new nation on the high seas. The Constitution, 204 feet long, was launched in Boston in 1797. From the start, this was a remarkably successful ship. During 1803 and 1804, the Constitution battled the Barbary pirates in the Mediterannean Sea and was undamaged. During the War of 1812, the Constitution won a tremendous battle with the British Guerriere and became world famous. Seeing cannon balls bouncing off the American frigate's sides, an English sailor is supposed to have exclaimed: "Her sides are made of iron!" Actually, iron was not used on warships' sides until later. The Constitution's sides were made of oak, a remarkably strong wood. This wonderful old frigate is still preserved at the Boston Navy Yard.
